DECENT CITIZENS PANIC STRICKEN BY ATTITUDE OF SUPT. WALLACE

Imperative Demand for His Dismissal Is Made on Mayor Hays.

HOUNDING A WOMAN

Policeman James Kilgallon, who is charged with having attempted to kiss and assault Mrs. M. B. Dick of 234 Frankstown avenue, two weeks ago, had a hearing before the police trial board yesterday. Mrs. Dick identified Kilgallon as the man who assailed her. Kilgallon told the board that he can now furnish a witness who will testify that he was not near the scene of the assault. This man is a druggist, and although Kilgallon had ample time to have his witness at the hearing yesterday he failed to appear. The board continued the case until next Wednesday so that he could secure his witness.

Supt. Wallace is still disposed to prosecute the woman, rather than make a thorough investigation of the case. He is angry because the newspapers got hold of the story, and he thinks the dignity of his police force has been unjustly assailed. Wallace seems to think that Mrs. Dick should have had a witness or two to the assault. Mrs. Dick says she would have never been assailed had somebody been with her.

Supt. Wallace informed The Gazette reporter that he had another complaint against Kilgallon for attempting to kiss a woman in East End. In spite of this statement, confirming Mrs. Dick's allegation, Wallace said yesterday he did not believe Mrs. Dick's story of the affair, and made no effort to investigate the second complaint against Kilgallon.

That Supt. Wallace is inclined to prosecute Mrs. Dick is confirmed by a statement made by Capt. Callen, formerly of the Frankstown avenue station house.

"That police board will give Mrs. Dick the worst of it," he said in speaking of the Kilgallon case.

After the hearing was continued yes-

LONE WOMEN AT THE MERCY OF RUFFIANS IN UNIFORM

To the Editor of The Gazette:

Sir—"That woman told the newspapers about the officer trying to kiss her and I will hound her out of the city," are the words from the lips of Superintendent of Police Alexander Wallace, according to your paper this morning. If that is a correct report and knowledge of it is brought to the mayor and Alexander Wallace is not removed forthwith from his office as superintendent, this city has great cause to be alarmed.

Think of it! A lone woman, about midnight, on her way home is assaulted by an officer of the law! Instead of protection, a helpless citizen is attacked! Could the conduct of an official be worse than the action of Policeman Kilgallon in forcibly kissing that helpless woman in the dead hour of night? As our persons are more sacred than our possessions, his offense would have been less had he looted a bank. But bad as Kilgallon's alleged offense was, it pales before the emblazoned effrontery of his superior, Alexander Wallace, when he uttered the words heading this letter. Think of it! The superintendent of police of this great city making the threat that he would hound out of this city the woman who had been assaulted by an officer under him, because she had told the newspapers about it! It is hard to conceive of anything which would more fully show such total unfitness for any position of public trust than such language from Superintendent Wallace. He, as superintendent, should have welcomed above all others the fullest exposure of one under him who had done a great public wrong. This is not a case where secrecy is necessary in order to secure justice.

In the story of "The Forty Thieves," should a stranger by any means gain access to the cave of these men, his life would be forfeited. The danger of having revealed any of the secrets of the gang made the death of the intruder necessary for the safety of the forty thieves.

Is it possible that the telling to the newspapers the story of her wrong is such a personal offense to the superintendent that she must be driven from the city by him? It must be that Wallace is afraid that his talk will prove to be the breaking of the seal of "Sesame" of his den of official corruption, and thereby revealing to the citizens of this city the dark and damnable secrets within.

From his own words and actions the public has a right to believe that his official conduct will not bear any ray of light of publicity, and if such is the case the resignation of Alexander Wallace as superintendent of police should be demanded by the authority placing him in that position.

If such resignation is not demanded and accepted by the mayor, then the good citizens of this city have, indeed, cause for the greatest alarm.

Yours respectfully,

524 Fourth avenue, September 6. JOSEPH A. GUINYON.

THIRTEEN NEW CASES IN BERLIN

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

HAMBURG, Sept. 6.—A case of cholera, the third to date, was found today in the heart of the business and food districts here.

The new case is that of a Polish woman, the wife of a coachman living in a thickly populated alley. She was taken to the isolation hospital. The house in which the woman was found and several adjacent houses have been quarantined with all their occupants. The many physicians inquiring into the case are puzzled as to the origin of the infection, as the locality is quite distant from any place where emigrants go. The health authorities expect to discover several more cases as the result of this one. Dr. McLaughlin of the United States marine hospital corps visited the house. In this as well as in other respects he has every facility. The doctor says that so long as the water is not affected there is no danger of an epidemic. He has investigated the water system and it seems to him to be excellent. Bacteriologists examine samples of the water twice a day.

The authorities trace the latest case of cholera to the same source as the other two. When the Russian emigrants came to Hamburg they were permitted to enter the town, where they visited a dance hall. Here the woman evidently came into contact with them. She now lies at the Eppendorfer hospital, but may recover. Dr. McLaughlin, in an interview with the Associated Press today, said:

I am very much pleased with the frankness and openness both of the authorities and the steamship companies. Today I was informed of the discovery of the latest case before it was officially published, and this information enabled me to promptly visit the infected house and neighborhood in which it is situated. I found that the precautions taken were most effective.

The methods of the Hamburg-American Steamship Company are very thorough, and there is no danger of the disease spreading to the United States. The American regulations require the detention of emigrants from an infected country for five days, which is the period of incubation for cholera, while the company now detains all emigrants bound for the United States for at least six days. I shall have no hesitancy in giving a clear bill of health to the Graf Waldersee for the thousand emigrants now detained on the Bungeria.

The Hamburg authorities have established a station for the control and examination of crews coming from the Upper Elbe.

BERLIN, Sept. 6.—An official bulletin just issued says that 13 new cases of cholera and two deaths were reported during the 24 hours ending at noon today, making the total 90 cases and 37 deaths.

The infected area was sensibly widened today. The river Oder has become tainted. Three cases have been reported from the administrative district of Frankfort-on-the-Oder, in three small places, along the stream among the river men. Thirty boatmen have been quarantined at Kustrin, a railway town near the union of the Oder and the Warthe. Sharp sanitary precautions have been taken throughout the district.

BROMBERG, PRUSSIA, Sept. 6.—It has been definitely ascertained that a farmer in Ludwikowo and a fisherman in Wojtenkowo who were confined owing to suspicious symptoms in their cases, are afflicted with cholera. One death from cholera has occurred here.

POSEN, PRUSSIA, Sept. 6.—The wife of a ship owner, Karl Schaffer, of Stettin, died here today of cholera.

MARIENWERDER, WEST PRUSSIA, Sept. 6.—Three fresh cholera cases and one death have been reported in this administrative district. The new cases are in the villages of Jagerabschle, Schiffelitz and Kurzebrack. The death occurred at Niederzimmern.

NEW PLAN FOR SUICIDE

Peter Adrine, in Strait Jacket, Stands on His Head Until Death Comes.

PATERSON, N. J., Sept. 6.—After unsuccessfully attempting nearly every ordinary method of suicide, Peter Adrine, an insane man, killed himself by standing on his head until a blood vessel burst. At the time he was confined in a padded cell and a strait jacket for the express purpose of protecting him from a temporary fit of suicidal mani... The county physician said that after rolling from the bed where he had been placed Adrine killed himself by repeatedly leaping into the air and diving headforemost upon the padded floor, by plowing his head along the floor while running on his knees or his feet and by standing directly on his head in corners of the cell.

NEW SWINDLE WAS COMING

A. G. Marshall and Associates About to Spring Another Scheme.

LEAD AND ZINC FAKE

ADVERTISEMENTS WERE READY

Just as his operations were discovered, A. G. Marshall, who is under arrest in New York on charges of swindling, was about to spring upon the Pittsburgh public a new $30,000 game which bears all the earmarks of being as crooked as the others which he and his associates are alleged to have worked.

Advertisements, to occupy a half page of a newspaper, had been prepared and sent into the newspaper offices offering for sale $30,000 of treasury stock of the "Consolidated Lead and Zinc Corporation." The par value of the stock was $10 and it was to be issued at $10 a share sold on monthly payments for the alleged purpose of building a 100-ton mill on the company's property.

In the center of the advertisement appeared a photograph of a mill of some kind with the statement "The contract is already let to build this 100-ton mill." Where the mill is to be located was not stated, but below in bold type is this claim: "The day this mill starts operation your stock is worth par."

Had Not Secured Officers Yet.

When this advertisement was given to the newspapers there was left vacant a space for the names of the officers and directors. It was said that the list had not yet been completed. Receiver Harry E. Holman, who is in charge of the offices of Marshall and his associates in the Washington National bank building, said last evening that he had no doubt that the same game was to be worked as that of which the first complaint was made. Advertisements for "partner wanted with small capital to invest" would be made. These men would be placed on salaries and given titles in the company, their names being used as officers and directors.

The advertisement was most cleverly worded to catch those not familiar with such concerns. The fact that it was not even claimed that the Consolidated Lead and Zinc Corporation was chartered by any state would not be noticed. Much space was given to the terms under which the stock would be sold: "5 shares, $5 cash, with 9 monthly payments of $1." "10 shares, $10 cash, with 9 monthly payments of $1," etc. Then there was a "refunding contract" which purported to guarantee that no dividends should be paid upon any stock issued by the corporation until the rightful owner and holder of the certificates sold under this plan had been refunded the full sum paid for the stock.

Claimed Mysterious Property.

In small type on one side was this statement: "The company now owns 320 acres in Marion county, Arkansas, and 40 acres in the great zinc belt of northern Arkansas, and the coming zinc country of the world."

It stated also: "We have two new railroads now building through these counties which will give us splendid shipping facilities." Then there were extracts from official reports of zinc, market quotations, and the statement that those who wanted to get in must hurry up.

"So far as I know the Consolidated Lead and Zinc Corporation does not even exist as a corporation," said Receiver Holman last evening. "There are half a dozen minute books at the offices of these people which shows all kinds of transac-

GLORY AGAIN FOR TOGO

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—Saved from attack, she alleges, by a faithful bulldog, Mary Posiah, aged 16, appeared before Magistrate Baker in the Harlem police court today as complainant against Joseph Jaronesky and Robert Hattack, drivers of a Long Island company express wagon. Jarenesky was held in $1,000 bail for examination and Hattack was detained as a witness.

According to the story told by the girl, she was alone in the house about 10 o'clock last night when the two men drove up with a trunk. Togo, the dog, was on the steps and Hattack played with him while she was showing Jarenesky where to take the trunk. When they had gone upstairs, she says, the men entered into a conversation with her, and, learning that she was alone, attacked her. Her screams and cries reached the ears of Togo, who rushed to her assistance, seizing her assailant by the arm and burying his fangs deep in his flesh. With cries of pain Jarenesky released his hold on the girl, who had fainted, and fled.

In court the dog, contrary to custom, was allowed to go inside the rail, a mute witness to the girl's story.

EDITOR SECURES LION TO GUARD THE SANCTUM

King of Beasts Will Attend to All Who Wish to Register Kicks on the Policy.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

NEW HARMONY, IND., Sept. 6.—Clarence P. Wolfe, editor of the Times of this place, proposes to put a lion on guard at the office of his paper, and it is understood that it will hereafter be the "fighting editor" in the event that there is any fighting to be done. The lion is far from being tame now, but Mr. Wolfe hopes that he can get it so it will be docile as far as he is concerned. What it may prove to others and, especially, objectionable callers, he don't care.

During a storm last week while a circus was here, the cage containing the lion was blown over and the animal was badly injured. The circus manager could not take it with him and when Editor Wolfe made him an offer the lion passed to his custody. It was valued before the accident at $1,500, but the editor bought it for a mere song, as it was badly injured and the veterinarian said it might never get well.

Mr. Wolfe is giving the king of beasts every possible attention and as soon as it is well enough to be taken to his office it will be domiciled permanently. He says he will expect it to "take care" of those parties who have been coming to the office to register kicks when the paper contains something to which they object.

MAE WOOD ATTACHES PLATT'S SALARY

TELLS SENSATIONAL STORY

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

OMAHA, NEB., Sept. 6.—Mae Catherine Wood, of "Love Letters of a Boss" fame, stepped into the limelight again today by filing suit against Senator Platt and the United States Express Company for $25,000 and attaching the property of the express company in Omaha and garnisheeing the salary of Platt, as president of the United States Express Company. The petition was filed late this afternoon and before the sheriff could attach the property the express office was closed for the night. The attachment and garnishment will be served early Thursday morning.

Miss Wood bases her claim to $25,000 by claiming that she acted as attorney for Platt and the express company when she was in the postoffice department at Washington and that it was through information which she gave Platt that Postmaster General Payne's recommendation for the post check system was changed after Payne had announced to the newspapers that it would go through. The petition in part says:

Plaintiff alleges that she as an attorney-at-law, skilled in her profession, and has been for the past nine years. That on or about the first day of April, 1902, this plaintiff was engaged by defendant as an attorney to watch all reports, recommendations and other steps taken in the post-office department at Washington, D. C., concerning the United States Express Company, and report the same to defendant, Thomas C. Platt, who was a member of the United States senate and a stockholder in and president of the said company. Plaintiff devoted considerable of her time and experience to said work, examining and watching every step and act which was proper to be examined and reporting from said department to the said Thomas C. Platt, as a member of the United States senate.

In May, 1903, Postmaster General Payne had prepared and given out the statement that he intended, in preparing his annual report, to submit to the house and senate of the United States congress a report recommending the establishment of the "post check" system, and had prepared the same. The plaintiff, knowing of this step, promptly reported the same to the said Senator Platt, who hurried to the department at an early hour of the day the same was to be submitted and caused said recommendation to be greatly modified before being reported. That by reason of said services the said express company saved hundreds of thousands of dollars; that defendants, after said services were rendered, acknowledged to this plaintiff that the same were invaluable to them and admitted an indebtedness to plaintiff for the services, that the reasonable value of such services are $25,000, no part of which has ever been paid.

"People are beginning to see that there may have been other and deeper reasons than a silly love affair between a foolish old man and a young woman in my being decoyed to New York and my letters and documents taken from me," said Miss Wood. "As set forth in this suit, I was an attorney for Senator Platt and the United States Express Company in Washington, and as such I had certain papers which might have caused trouble had they been made public."

"The Japanese army attacked the Russians at Chyongtuyang on September 1. The district was mountainous and difficult, but finally the Japanese artillery successfully attacked the Russian left and occupied their position at 9 in the morning. The Russians strongly resisted west of Chyongtuyang, but were forced at 11 o'clock. Another Japanese detachment defeated the Russians at Heamienkokai and pursued them. Japanese casualties were one officer killed and five officers and 60 men wounded. The Russians left 40 dead on the field."

HUNDREDS HURT IN TOKYO RIOTS

The Anti-Peace Demonstrations Cause Clashes in Streets of Japan's Capital.

TWO PERSONS ARE KILLED

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

TOKYO, Sept. 6.—Rioting broke out here last night in connection with the dissatisfaction over the results of the peace settlement. There were several clashes with the police, and it is estimated that two were killed and 500 wounded. The rioting ceased at midnight. Police stations were the only property destroyed.

TOKYO, Sept. 5.—(Delayed in transmission.)—The first turbulence attendant on the popular anger over the terms of peace arranged with Russia, took place today. A mass meeting to protest against the action of the government was called to take place at Hibiya park, but the metropolitan police closed the gates and attempted to prevent the assemblage of the people. The municipality protested against the action of the police, and finally the gates were thrown open and a large crowd gathered and voted in favor of resolutions declaring the nation humiliated and denouncing the terms upon which the treaty of peace was arranged.

Later on, however, a crowd attempted to hold a meeting in the Shintomi theater, and the police dispersed it. A portion of the crowd then proceeded to the office of the Kokumin Shimbun, the government organ, and began hooting. Three employes of the paper armed with swords appeared at the door and checked the attack and the police again dispersed the crowd.

WILL USE FATHER AS INDICATOR IN WEATHER PROPHET CONTEST

DELAWARE, O., Sept. 6.—(Special.)—Using his rheumatic father as an indicator, Joshua Van Brimmer, a local weather prophet, has entered the contest for the $100 offered by L. R. East of New York, an expert with a belief that government weather predictions are poorly made. East's prize goes to the observer who makes the nearest prediction as to the actual weather between October 15 and November 15.

Van Brimmer's father has long suffered from rheumatism and the son in making his forecasts takes advantage of his parental affliction to forecast the weather. He has made a study of the causes and effects of the pains and aches of his father and made a record of them until with few minutes he foretells the approaching changes.

"YES, I INTENDED TO TAKE SHOT AT LIEUT. FORTESQUE"

So Declares Capt. Taggart in His Testimony in the Divorce Suit.

KIMONA BOBS UP ONCE MORE

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

WOOSTER, O., Sept. 6.—Capt. Taggart on the witness stand today declared that it was his intention to take a shot at Lieut. Fortesque when the latter came home with Mrs. Taggart on the night of June 30.

"We will swear to lies that will make the devil blush if we go on the witness stand," so said Billy Taggart, according to the testimony of F. F. Dow, detective, who spent several days with Billy in Orrville, during the latter part of last June. He told of Billy showing him a bundle of letters and saying: "They are from my sweetheart and will be her death warrant if anybody gets hold of them." On another occasion Billy said his lady love was Mrs. Captain Taggart and that the stories about her were trite, but if put on the stand, he would swear they were hers. Billy also said that after Grace's troubles were over, he and she were going on the road with a theatrical troupe.

The session today was an extremely stormy one. Tomorrow the defense will introduce evidence in sur-rebuttal and Mrs. Taggart will again take the stand. After the noon recess the Filipino was again called to the stand to testify in regard to the kimono worn by Mrs. Taggart when she received Fortesque in her husband's den. Mrs. Taggart was called upon to don the kimono, which she did.

"Was this the garment worn by Mrs. Taggart that morning?" was asked.

"No, the one she wore was an old one. It was red and a little lighter in weight and fastened by a cord instead of a sash."

Captain Taggart again took the stand and in response to questions said that when Fortesque and Mrs. Taggart emerged from the cellar one night at Fort Leavenworth they did not stop in the kitchen, as stated by Mrs. Taggart for the purpose of crushing ice, but went through the kitchen into the sitting room.

"Major, on the night of June 30, did Mrs. Taggart yell when you pushed her out on the porch?"

"She wasn't out on the porch."

"What did you say about a revolver to Mrs. Taggart that night?"

"I told her it was my intention to shoot Fortesque if he came with her that night."

"What truth is there in Mrs. Taggart's candid story about you getting out of bed after night to get a drink?"

"There is no truth whatever in it and I might add I never in my life got out of bed to get a drink of liquor."

Taggart then told of his being in Kansas City and St. Louis during a good part of the time that his wife said he was getting up at night to get drinks.

"From the top of the stairway can a person leaning over the banisters see down into the vestibule?"

"No, sir."

The captain denied kicking or beating Mrs. Taggart.

"Did you ever hear Mrs. Taggart teach the children to pray?" was asked him.

"No, sir," Captain Taggart replied.

Taggart then told of inviting Miss Wilkshire to share a seat in his sleigh as far as her home, which she accepted. When he told Mrs. Taggart about it she slapped him and said "Take that when you go with Miss Wilkshire again."

"Did you teach Culver his alphabet?"

"Yes, I taught him in Orrville in 1903."

"Did you know that within three years after the time he learned his alphabet he was in the seventh grade in school?"

"Yes, he is a very bright boy," replied Taggart.

Smyser asked the witness: "Did you intend to shoot Fortesque on the night of June 30?"

Taggart asked the court if he was compelled to answer this question. The judge said "yes."

"Yes, I intended to take a shot at him," snapped Tagart.

Then followed a long cross-examination of the witness in regard to the events of the fight on the night of June 30.

CITIZENS PANIC STRICKEN

terday several of the members of the trial board openly expressed themselves that they did not believe Mrs. Dick. After the assault Mrs. Dick went to her home and got one of her roomers up and asked him to go to the Frankstown avenue station house with her to make a complaint. The woman made the complaint, but the police were inclined not to give the case any consideration. It was not until after the assault was disclosed by The Gazette that the police started to act. Mrs. Dick was then asked to identify her alleged assailant, which she did while he was lined up with his brother officers.

Mrs. Dick said when she identified Kilgallon he became enraged and threatened her.

Lights Illuminate Bridge Now.

Councilman Helmold of the Twentieth ward was the recipient of numerous congratulations last night when the residents in the vicinity of the Ellsworth avenue bridge discovered two lights brilliantly illuminating both ends of the structure, which had been placed there by order of Director Bigelow yesterday at the request of Mr. Helmold.

This bridge was the scene of the alleged kissing bee in which Policeman Kilgallon is said to have bestowed his affection upon a woman a few nights ago against the woman's will. Until last night the structure had always been in darkness and was a forbidding spot for respectable men and women. Women were often accosted by strange men on this bridge at night, and it was a frequent occurrence for East End citizens to be held up on the bridge by footpads and robbed.

Grand Jury Finds True Bills.

The grand jury returned yesterday five true bills against Albert G. Marshall and Frank Dunbar, the two absconding officers of the North American, Lafayette Mutual and Duquesne Mutual Fire Insurance companies. One of the indictments, on oath of Louis A. Henry, charges the men with conspiracy. Three charges of misdemeanor in embezzlement of the companies' funds while acting as officers and one of false pretense, made by J. M. Blizzard and Silas M. Runkle, also resulted in true bills being found.

The bills were sent at once to the clerk of court's office and certified copies were prepared and given to Detective Cecil G. Rice, who left last evening with Attorney Frederick L. Kahle for Harrisburg to obtain requisition papers. The papers will be presented to Gov. Pennypacker tomorrow and will be taken to Albany, N. Y., to be presented to Gov. Higgins.

A telegram received yesterday by Attorney Kahle from Attorney Henry F. Fay of New York, who has been retained by the prosecution, stated that he had received the preliminary extradition papers.

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER ENJOYS VISIT FROM PRESS HUMORISTS

Men Who Make a Living Having Fun Entertain and Are Entertained by the Richest Man, Who Is Often Their Victim.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 6.—Wearing his newly-purchased wig and in a happy mood, John D. Rockefeller today received the members of the American press humorists at Forest Hill, his summer home, and in person conducted them around the place. The oil king broke all precedents, for never before has any one dared to enter his preserves and he has never received a delegation nor has he ever acted as a guide. The local joke-smiths asked permission Tuesday to drive through his grounds in automobiles and much to their surprise their request was granted. Piling into large touring cars and headed by Mayor Tom L. Johnson, the humorists were driven to the Rockefeller home and found their host playing golf with Dr. Biggar, his physician.

"I'm pleased to meet you," Mr. Rockefeller said, extending his hand, and his manner indicated that he really was. "I want to meet all of you."

And for the next five minutes he was shaking hands cordially with men who harpoon him and gridiron him six days a week.

"Now," said Mr. Rockefeller, when handshaking had finished, "I want you to take some flowers. Over here is a bank of snowdrops. Come, help yourselves."

He led the way to the flowers, saying: "I am most happy that you are here. I hope I can aid you in feeling as pleased over your visit as I am. Come, here are the flowers. Gentlemen, cut with your knives, please. Cut the best, the largest bunches."

Mrs. W. R. Rose pinned to Mr. Rockefeller's coat a buckeye on which were the letters "A. F. H."

"You are most kind," he said. "I am one of you now, am I? Thank you."

The oil king and Dr. Biggar carried on good natured repartee for several moments, much to the guests' delight. He was asked to pose with his guests for a photograph.

"Certainly, if you wish," he replied. As the party stood for the picture Mr. Rockefeller slipped behind a lady.

"I don't wish to take too prominent a part," he said. "I am crowding out others who belong here."

"My emblem and my part in this make me a humorist, do they?" he asked.

"You are one of us," replied President Gilliland.

"I am happy to know it," said Mr. Rockefeller.

Only once did he refer in any way to the criticism of himself. Dr. Biggar jokingly told him to be careful of what he said about the trees.

"Ladies and gentlemen," said the host, taking off his cap, "and I say this especially for your benefit, Dr. Biggar. When I was a small boy I was taught not to believe all I heard, or even what I read in books."

As his guests left for town Mr. Rockefeller said: "I have been delightfully entertained; most happy to meet you."

TARTAR FACTION BEYOND CONTROL

Dispatches from Baku Indicate Desperate Situation—Troops Are Inadequate.

TELEPHONE WIRES ARE DOWN

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 7.—2:50 a. m.—The news from Baku received up to the time of the filing of this dispatch is of the gloomiest character. The Armenian and Tartar warring factions now appear to be entirely beyond control. The streets of Baku seem to be unsafe for the inhabitants and the force of troops to be inadequate to restrain the anarchical tendencies of the combatants in the surrounding region. According to reliable reports the troops have been forced to withdraw from the suburb of Balakhan, where on Tuesday the rioters set fire to the oil works, and that place is now in the hands of the Tartars, who have completed the work of destruction and who, it is said, massacred the inhabitants who did not accompany the troops in their retirement. Telephonic and railroad communication between Baku and the surburban oil centers is cut and late last night it was reported that the wires into Baku were down.

The viceroy of the Caucasus has dispatched reinforcements of troops from Tiflis but owing to the conditions throughout the whole of the southwestern Caucasus it is thought that even with these reinforcements the troops will be inadequate to deal with the situation. In the surburban region the fight is desperate and the soldiers are using artillery.

Representatives of the oil industry here are utterly despondent and they declare that on the basis of the telegrams so far received more than half of the industry in the Baku region has been wiped out and that the fire is making rapid inroads into the remainder of the oil territory.

The Baku representative of a prominent oil company has telegraphed to his St. Petersburg headquarters as follows: "It is no longer a question of saving our property, but one of getting out alive."

A press dispatch from Baku, approved by the censor, says:

"The rival factions are concentrating in their own quarters here. The situation is exceedingly tense. Murders are frequent. Cannonading is heard from time to time. In the Moslem quarter the patrols have been fired upon. Balakhan is on fire and the Armenians are surrounded by armed villagers, 'apparently Tartars,' and the cannonading there is unceasing. The fire continues in 'The Black Town' quarter and in Bibiebat. Energetic measures and heavy reinforcements of troops are immediately necessary."

Other advices state that a hot fight is going on between Armenians and Tartars at Bibiebat and that great fires are still raging at Sabunto and Nomani, fed by immense tanks of naphtha, of which there are 1,600 in that region, and that the conflagration at Baku, where, up to last evening the tanks of the Society of Baku were intact, is steadily increasing.

LIFE INSURANCE IS UNDER FIRE

OFFICERS THE WHOLE THING

THE PITTSBURG GAZETTE BUREAU,
Herald Building, Herald Square,
NEW YORK, Sept. 6.

So-called mutual life insurance methods, as actually practiced by some of the most powerful companies, received a distinct jar at the very outset today of the inquiry by Senator Armstrong's joint legislative committee of investigation.

Charles E. Hughes had hardly couched his lance before he succeeded in pricking the glittering bubble of mutuality which some of the professedly "purely mutual" companies have blown for the policyholders' admiring gaze. Before he had finished with his first day's joust he had shown, seemingly to the satisfaction of the committeemen, that, so far at least as concerns the participation of the policyholders in the organization and government of these several companies, mutuality, as practiced at present, is an empty phrase, and the annual elections held to fill vacancies in the directorates are a farce.

Have It Cut and Dried.

High officials of the most conspicuous insurance companies in America calmly admitted, under oath, that nominees for trustees or directors were invariably selected in advance by executive committees, that such things as contested elections were unheard of, the printed ticket being the only one in the field, that the votes cast personally at such elections often numbered a paltry dozen or less, and that usually by employes or officers of the company itself.

Inspectors of these elections, whose duty it is under the by-laws to certify to the legality thereof, admitted that they commonly took no steps to determine the eligibility of alleged policyholders, who might appear to vote in person, but accepted on that point the assurance of such officers of the company, usually the president or some of the vice presidents, who might be present.

Several of the officers of the New York Life Insurance Company who had been subpoenaed appeared before the committee and also several officers who were not summoned. With them came the company's books covering the business of the past ten years. The officers were John A. McCall, president; George L. Perkins, T. A. Buckner, D. P. Kingsley, vice presidents; Rufus W. Weeks, chief actuary; E. R. Perkins, second vice president; John C. McCall, secretary; E. D. Randolph, treasurer, and many junior officers.

Vice President Grannis testified that there had been only one case in the last five or six years of votes cast by proxy in the Mutual Life Insurance Company's elections. He estimated that President Richard A. McCurdy of the Mutual, and himself, held about 20,000 proxies. He said that there was no examination of credentials, no presentation of policies or any other way of certifying the right of a prospective voter to cast his ballot.

Salaries Are Enormous.

The amounts of salaries paid to officers of the New York Life Insurance Company were given by John C. McCall, secretary of that company. He said that he was a son of President John A. McCall of the New York Life, that the day after he graduated from Harvard in 1899 he went to work for the New York Life Insurance Company at a salary of $2,500 a year as assistant secretary and that he now receives $14,000. The president's salary, he said, was $100,000. The salaries of the first vice presidents were $25,000, $35,000 and $40,000, and of the three second vice presidents $20,000, $21,000 and $18,000, respectively. There were, Mr. McCall said, about 25,000 proxies in the office of his company made out in the names of the presidents and vice presidents.

Edward Rhodes appeared for the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company of New Jersey, which does business in New York. He said that the salaries paid to the officers of the New Jersey company were very low, but the figures were not given.

The Metropolitan Life Insurance Company was represented in the witness box by Vice President Haley Fiske and by Frederick H. Ecker, controller. The latter said that in an election in 1904 out of 38,859 votes cast, all except three or four were voted by proxy. Mr. Fiske said that the president's salary was $100,000, his own, $75,000 and the lesser officers from $25,000 down.

Charles W. Casey of the Mutual Reserve Life Insurance Company was the last witness examined at today's session.

CHASED THROUGH STREETS BY AN IMAGINARY FEMALE

Natrona Man Succeeds in Making Night Interesting for Guests of North Side Hotel

A man giving his name as Frank Lehmina, aged 40, and claiming Natrona as his home, created excitement in Federal street, Allegheny, yesterday morning, by running about and shouting that a woman was after him to take his life. Shortly after midnight he had gone to a hotel near the Sixth street bridge and after registering was assigned a room on the second floor. An hour later people in the hotel were aroused by screams proceeding from Lehmina's room. Investigation revealed the man crouched in a corner behind the bed. After howling that a woman was attempting his life, Lehmina was quieted enough to be sent to police headquarters. He had torn the bedding to shreds and upset the furniture in his room.

An hour after his arrival at police headquarters he broke away and ran down Federal street yelling at the top of his voice. The woman, he said, was after him and had chased him through all the North Side parks. Policeman Oscar Stemler called the patrol wagon and again sent Lehmina to Central station, where he was detained for the night. Yesterday he was turned over to friends who took him away in a carriage. Lehmina said he had just arrived in Allegheny from New York. He had $200 in cash in his possession and a check for a similar amount was found in his valise.

RUSSELL STILL AT LARGE.

County Detectives Have Not Succeeded in Capturing the Maniac.

The county detectives yesterday continued the search for Thomas Russell, the maniac murderer, who escaped from the county home at Woodville early Friday morning. No trace of the fugitive could be found. Detectives Reed and McMillan searched in the vicinity of Walkers Mills all day and returned to the city last night. Other officers were detailed to the scene to take up the search this morning.

The detectives believe Russell is hiding in the woods and he will be forced to come into the open sooner or later on account of hunger.

Weigel, chief dispatcher of the company, has been promoted to the new place with headquarters in Pittsburgh. Mr. Weigel is succeeded as chief dispatcher by William B. Brown, who has been night dispatcher. Both of these men are well known in local railroad circles.

The first circulars to be issued by Superintendent G. B. Obey of the Monongahela railroad, which was appointed to that office Tuesday, were announcements of the appointments of H. B. Pierce as trainmaster of the road and of C. O. Dorr as chief clerk to the superintendent. Mr. Pierce succeeds H. W. Shank, resigned, and Mr. Dorr succeeds H. C. Davis, resigned. The appointments were effective yesterday.

LAST WORD COMES FROM PEARY ON HIS WAY NORTH

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—What is believed to be the final word from Commander Robert E. Peary before his return from his attempt to reach the North Pole, was received today by Herbert L. Brigman of Brooklyn, secretary of the Peary Arctic club. The message came from Etah, North Greenland, and in it Commander Peary stated that his ship, the Roosevelt, would leave that port August 16, the date of the message, with 23 Eskimo men and some 200 dogs, to establish a base at Cape Sabine for the final dash into the frozen regions about the Pole. Commander Peary added that the machinery of the Roosevelt had been overhauled and that all was in readiness for ice fighting. All on board were well.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Sept. 6.—The Peary expedition's auxiliary steamer Erik returned here from Cape Sabine, Greenland, last night, reporting that the Arctic ship Roosevelt, with Commander Peary on board, left Cape Sabine for the North August 21.

The officers of the Erik fear the Roosevelt will not get very far north this winter, conditions in the northern waters being very adverse. Ice floes are unusually heavy already and much bad weather has prevailed. On the voyage to Greenland the Roosevelt proved an eminently satisfactory vessel.

MAIL DRIVERS STRIKE.

Three Hundred Men Leave Wagons at Night in New York City, Many Deserting Teams in the Street.

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—Three hundred drivers of United States mail wagons quit their jobs at 10 o'clock tonight. More than a score of them deserted their wagons at the Mail street entrance of the general postoffice after they had received word that the strike had been decided upon. It is the echo of the trouble over wages some weeks ago. The leaders of the men say that the agreement the bosses made with them has not been lived up to. They also demand an increase of wages.

Acting Superintendent of Mails Fix said at the postoffice after the men had left the wagons that although there were 150 mail routes to be delivered to railroad stations and branch offices up to 3 o'clock tomorrow morning, he thought there would be no difficulty in keeping the service running. All of the men are employed by the New York Mail Company.

GOULD AND RAMSEY MEET AND IN HARMONY

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—George J. Gould and Joseph Ramsey, Jr., president of the Wabash system, met today for the first time since their return from Europe in the board room of the Wabash railroad. Mr. Gould presided as acting president of the road. So far as could be learned affairs passed off quite amicably at the board meeting. Many of the directors shook hands with the president of the road and welcomed him on his return.

RABBLE NOT ADMITTED; FIELD WEDDING INVALID?

[Special Cable to The Gazette.]
(Copyright, 1905, by New York Herald Co.)

LONDON, Sept. 6.—Owing to the fact that the celebration of the marriage of Marshall Field and Mrs. Delia Spencer Caton was not open to the general public, attempts are being made to cast doubt on the validity of the ceremony. The Evening News tonight contains a statement that a question has arisen as to whether the ceremony was perfectly legal and in strict accordance with recognized observance of the Church of England.

"This is owing," said this journal, "to the fact that the wedding so far as the general public were concerned, was solemnized behind locked doors, with policemen preventing the entry of parishioners and other interested."

The special license granted by the archbishop of Canterbury, like all others, to Mr. Field, says that the wedding is to take place in the presence of "all Christian people willing to be present." The Evening News quotes a "highly placed authority," who says, "there was no justification in strict ecclesiastical law for any Christian desirous of attending being kept out of the church."

Another "high official," according to the same paper, says "the point raised is of public importance and the holding of marriages in strict privacy is not recognized by us."

Mr. and Mrs. Field are still at Claridge's.

GREAT OVATION TO PEACE ENVOYS

TO BE GUESTS OF PRESIDENT

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—Thousands of persons greeted the Russian peace envoys when they arrived at the Grand Central station this afternoon from Boston. There was a great demonstration when they left the train and hurried to the St. Regis hotel, where they will remain while in this city.

M. Witte, accompanied by Baron De Rosen, walked from the train to the waiting carriages, and it was only through great efforts on the part of the police and secret service men that a passageway was cleared. Both envoys smiled and doffed their hats continually at the cheers of the crowds.

M. Witte and Baron DeRosen were readily recognized and men and women pushed their way toward them. The crowd became so great the party was brought to a standstill and every one wanted to shake hands with the two. Both grasped many hands as they slowly made their way to the sidewalk. The Russian plenipotentiaries and the members of their party will be lavishly entertained while in this city. The first of a series of functions in their honor will be given tomorrow night, a dinner at the Metropolitan club by Col. George Harvey.

The Japanese envoys arrived tonight from Boston. Baron Kaneko, Japan's confidential representative here, with his secretaries and two score of Japanese students was at the station to greet the envoys. Another great crowd was on hand to cheer the returning plenipotentiaries, and secret service men, city detectives and heavy guard of uniformed police had to make a way for the Japanese party. Baron Komura walked alone, followed closely by Mr. Takahira. The party entered five carriages and amid cheering were hurried away to their hotel.

BOSTON, Sept. 6.—Both the Russian and Japanese plenipotentiaries, together with the members of their respective missions, left Boston today in special trains for New York. Crowds of people had assembled at the South station and as the train passed out that bearing the Russians about 1 o'clock and that of the Japanese two hours later, enthusiastic demonstrations occurred. M. Witte responded to the cheers by appearing on the rear platform and making a brief speech through Mr. Rojestvensky. He gave expression to the pleasure which his journey had accorded, his thanks at the cordiality of the greeting and his regret that he must leave so soon.

OYSTER BAY, Sept. 6.—Baron Komura and Minister Takahira, the Japanese peace plenipotentiaries, it was announced today by Secretary Loeb, will lunch with the president Saturday.

The following are copies of the telegrams received yesterday by the president from Baron Komura and M. Witte and Baron DeRosen announcing the signing of the peace treaty between Russia and Japan:

Portsmouth, N. H., Sept. 5, 1905.

To the President: I hasten to inform you that the treaty of peace has just been signed. Humanity is under a lasting debt of gratitude to you for the initiation and successful conclusion of the peace conference. I beg to be permitted to add my own thanks and sincere acknowledgement.

KOMURA.

New Castle, N. H., Sept. 5, 1905.

The President: We have the honor to inform you that we have this day signed the treaty of peace with Japan. It is not for us to thank you for what you have done in the cause of peace as your noble, generous efforts have been fittingly acknowledged by our imperial sovereigns. We can only express to you, Mr. President, and to the people of the United States, our personal sentiment of profound gratitude for the cordial reception you have done us the honor to extend to us and which we have met with at the hands of the people in this country.

WITTE.
ROSEN.

No Nobel Prize for Roosevelt.

CHRISTIANA, Sept. 6.—All the Norwegian papers this morning express regret that it will be impossible to award to President Roosevelt the Nobel peace prize this year owing to the requirement that candidates for the prize be nominated before February. It is expected, however, that Mr. Roosevelt will be chosen for the prize in 1906.

JAPAN'S ANGER IS COOLING OFF

People Are Slowly Becoming Reconciled to the Terms of Peace.

ENTIRE NATION DISAPPOINTED

TOKYO, Sept. 7.—(Delayed in Transmission.)—Under a vigorous defense by the conservative journals supporting the government and a fuller and better appreciation of the situation confronting the country, public sentiment is showing some evidence of reaction. The argument that it is impossible for Japan to continue the bloody war merely for the purpose of securing indemnity is proving effective in allaying dissatisfaction. It is believed that when the government is free to explain fully the conditions of the settlement and the logic appertaining to them, the reaction of sentiment will largely increase.

The entire nation is keenly disappointed at the outcome. Nowhere throughout the empire has there been a step taken toward the celebration of the conclusion of peace. The radicals continue their campaign against the government, demanding the punishment of those responsible for the compromise. The forthcoming diet is certain to be turbulent, and it is predicted that the Katsura government will be forced from office.

The declines in the market and the unsatisfactory crop conditions, coupled, naturally, with the heavy obligations of the government, have created a fear in some quarters that a financial depression and unsatisfactory business conditions are impending.

Problems of War Realized.

Baron Shibusawa, discussing the peace settlement, declares his dissatisfaction with the terms, but says the Korean and Manchurian problems have been settled and the purpose of the war realized.

"The terms are of inadequate value," he says, "and the extent of peace imperfect and unsatisfactory. Still Japan secures paramountcy in Korea."

Baron Shibusawa does not believe the financial basis will be endangered by failure to secure indemnity; he has strong confidence in Japan's productive power and energies. He said:

"Let them be applied to the development of railways, mines and other industries of Korea. This is not the time to brood over the past and look for future gloom, but it is the time to seize the advantages the future holds. Commercial and industrial depression following in the wake of an unsatisfactory peace is a result that cannot be stopped, but it is most unwise to give ourselves to despair over an issue which none can alter."

A news agency quotes a prominent general as expressing disgust over the outcry against the peace terms. He declared that the war was not fought for the purpose of securing indemnity. He says Japan has the power to fully recompense herself for the cost of the war by industrial and commercial developments.

Newspapers Are Dissatisfied.

The Kokumin is the only metropolitan daily paper that defends the terms of the peace settlement. The paper declares that the purpose of the war has been accomplished and says:

"The war has not been fought to gain money. Russia has been stripped of the control of Manchuria and driven sufficiently north. More than the aim and purpose of the war has been gained by our recognized ascendency in Korea, and every reason exists to thank our delegates and feel expectedly grateful for the good offices of President Roosevelt."

The Nichi Nichi calls the result an insult to the nation.

The Jiji says that it already has expressed discontent, but now that the die has been cast it hopes that the government will make adequate provision to care for the thousands of families bereft of their breadwinners and also for the veterans who have been permanently crippled.

Detectives Raid Club.

The Commercial club, 146 Fulton street, was raided last night at 10 o'clock and Clif Ellis, Jim Melton and William Welsh were arrested and gave bail in the sum of $1,000 for a hearing. A craps game was in full blast when the officers entered, there being about 60 people in the place. Gambling paraphernalia and a Dewey slot machine were found and taken in evidence. The information against the men was made yesterday by Chief of County Detectives R. G. Robinson before Alderman Toole.

EVERY STATE IS INTERESTED

Pennsylvania State Police Force, Now Organizing, a Great Experiment.

RECRUITING OFFICERS HERE

All the states of the union are looking with interest to the experiment of the state mounted police, now organizing in Pennsylvania. Texas has her mounted police, the famous rangers, but even Texas is interested in the Pennsylvania movement, for Texas has furnished to Pennsylvania all information relating to the rangers. From Canada have come the regulations for her mounted police and information concerning the methods followed in securing the noted efficiency of that fine body of men. It is the determination of Governor Pennypacker, reinforced by Capt. John C. Groome, superintendent of the state police force, to have an unexceptionable body of men.

Dr. Francis D. Patterson of Philadelphia, accompanied by John H. Clarke, chief clerk of the department of state police, is here to conduct the physical examination of applicants for admission to the force. They worked all day yesterday and will stay in Pittsburgh until tomorrow evening, working from 8:30 a. m. until 10:30 p. m. In fact, those are the hours of work observed by Dr. Patterson and Mr. Clarke since the examinations began. Dr. Patterson recruited 15 months for the regular army. The physical requirements for the successful state policeman are the same as those for admission into the army. Dr. Patterson expects to examine at least 125 men in Pittsburgh. He remarked yesterday that the men presenting themselves for examination here were generally fine specimens of manhood.

What the Law Requires.

The law requires each applicant to pass a mental and physical examination, to be a citizen of the United States, of sound constitution, able to ride, of good moral character, to be between the age of 21 and 40 years, and to be not less than five feet six inches in height. While the law does not specify the weight he will be more likely to be successful if he weighs no more than 200 pounds.

The examinations are being held in room 415 in the federal building. Each applicant has already received a postal card, notifying him to be on hand at a certain hour, and in a few minutes after he has handed in his card he is stripped and under examination. By this system applicants lose little time from their regular avocations, and the lobby is not filled with a waiting crowd.

The state police force will be composed of 250 men, divided into four companies, each with a captain, a lieutenant and five sergeants. The captains will receive $1,500, lieutenants $1,200, sergeants $1,000 and privates $720 a year. Each man will be thoroughly equipped, clothed and armed, and a horse will be furnished him and an allowance made for horse feed. His only expense will be his own rations. The term of enlistment for privates is two years, and deserters will be severely punished.

One Company Near Pittsburgh.

It has not been decided where the companies shall be stationed, but it is presumed that one will be near Wilkesbarre, one at Reading, another in the center of the state and the fourth in or near Pittsburgh. Although there will be four headquarters, the entire state will be patrolled by the men. A private may ride away from his headquarters one day and not return for a week or 10 days. His day's ride will be about 20 miles, and he will keep in touch with headquarters by telephone or telegraph, so that he may be called in or dispatched in any direction.

The force will not only have to be physically perfect, but must be mentally alert. From the description above of the system it is evident that the men are thrown on their own initiative; that once out in the field each man is his own "boss" and must use his own discretion and judgment. There will be opportunity for the use of muscle and finesse in arresting evildoers and plenty of chance for the exercise of detective ability. The force cannot be a refuge for political hacks, for the life will be strenuous. Riding horseback pretty nearly every day in the year and being away from home for 10 days at a time, eating any kind of food that may be at hand and perhaps spending the night camping on the ground is no picnic.

Politics Cuts No Figure.

Mr. Clarke was asked if politics would have anything to do with the appointments. "Not a particle," he said. "Capt. Groome wants the best men he can find, and politicians will not influence appointments. It is true that Republican senators and representatives have recommended men, but in every case where a man so recommended has applied for examination he looked to be fit, showing that the senators and representatives are not recommending every Tom, Dick and Harry, but first size up their man before sending him to Dr. Patterson. These men must take the same chances that confront the man who comes unrecommended.

"The papers of each applicant will be forwarded to Capt. Groome at Harrisburg," said Dr. Patterson. "The marking is on the point system and only the men who come up to the standard will be eligible. I expect, before getting through, to have examined about 2,000 applicants, and out of that number, considering the very good material that has passed through my hands, I think Capt. Groome will be able to select splendid men. Of course, the mental examination is still to be made."

Can Arrest on View.

The state policeman will have all the authority of a city policeman or a constable for he is not bound by county or municipal lines and can make arrests on view or on warrant anywhere in the state. It is expected that every man returning from patrol duty will make complete reports, describing the character of the population, the condition of the roads and other facts, and from the reports information valuable to every department of the state government can be compiled. The state policeman will also be a game warden, a fish warden, a forest ranger, subject to the orders of the state superintendent, yet always ready to aid the local peace authorities.

The state authorities realize that a state police force is an experiment for an eastern state, and that its duties are like the duties of the Texas rangers and the Canadian mounted police. Of course, Pennsylvania has no such large tracts of unpopulated territory as Canada and Texas, yet the state policemen will patrol the state just like the rangers and the Canadian mounted policemen. Problems entirely different from those confronting city and county peace officers will have to met and be solved.

From Pittsburgh Dr. Patterson and Mr. Clarke will go to Rochester and New Castle, conducting examinations on Saturday. They will return to Philadelphia by the northern tier of counties, stopping at Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Sunbury.

FIRE CHIEF WANTS PAID DEPARTMENT IN HOMESTEAD

Homestead council yesterday accepted the resignation of William Tunstall as superintendent of public works. No successor was named, although T. B. Williamson and James Wright are candidates. In view of the large waste of water an ordinance was ordered drawn providing for the use of water by the meter system. Samuel Cox was appointed chief engineer of the water department, succeeding Morgan Jones, resigned. E. K. Bryce, chief of the fire department, recommended the abolition of the volunteer fire companies and the establishment of a paid service.

DIMINUTIVE TERRIER IS CAUSE OF FIERCE RIOT

Woman Is Hit With Brick, Another Has Finger Nearly Bitten Off, and Angry Crowd Shouts "Lynch the Niggers."

A 14-inch black and tan terrier was the cause of a riot last night which for a time threatened to end disastrously for three negroes who had taken umbrage at the dog's actions and who had attempted his assassination with a brick.

Shortly after 8 o'clock the negroes, Granison and Daniel Mitchel and a friend, were passing the residence of Anthony E. King on Percbment street, East End, when the black and tan ran out and began barking at them. Daniel seized half a brick and made for the dog. King, however, raised a window and shouted to the men to let the dog alone. Some words ensued and King and his wife, with Mrs. Lenora Barry, daughter of King, came into the yard and took the dog's part.

Dan Mitchel let fly the brick at King, who dodged and the missile struck Mrs. King on the forehead, knocking her down and rendering her unconscious. King grappled with the men and was being overcome when Mrs. Barry came to his assistance. Granison Mitchel was embracing King and as Mrs. Barry attempted to pull his head from King he seized the middle finger of her right hand in his teeth and bit it severely.

Neighbors succeeded in engaging the attention of the Mitchel brothers until the arrival of Lieut. Andrew Mellett and a squad of officers from the Franks-town station, who had been telephoned for. By this time the fight had assumed the porportions of a riot and a crowd followed the negroes to Franks-town and Oakwood streets where the trouble threatened to crop out again. Cries of "Lynch the niggers" were heard on all sides and the police hustled their prisoners into the patrol wagon and took them to the station house.

Both the women injured in the fight needed the attention of a physician and it was several hours before Mrs. King was pronounced out of danger. The third negro escaped.

FRENCH PROFESSOR STUDIES PITTSBURGH

Guest of Secretary Wardrop of "M. and M." Wants to Know Steel City Economics.

Prof. Achille Viallate, head of the department of politics and economics in the University of Paris, France, is spending three days in Pittsburgh studying industrial and commercial conditions. He is the guest of Secretary James W. Wardrop of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' association, and has expressed himself as thoroughly interested in Pittsburgh conditions.

Prof. Viallate came here Tuesday morning from Cleveland, having previously visited Canada and Buffalo. After his three-day visit ends here this evening he will proceed to Detroit. His itinerary after that includes the following cities: Chicago, St. Louis, Birmingham, Atlanta, Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia, Boston and New York.

Among the numerous queries of M. Viallate are those regarding our commercial bodies, our commercial supremacy, what our feeling is regarding reciprocity, what our opinions are respecting foreign trade and the merchant marine, what are the elements of our industrial growth, what are the details of this growth and what have been the influences leading to the formation of the larger corporations and so-called trusts. He says that he is much impressed with the place that the electric railway and the telephone have taken in American development.

Mr. Wardrop was his escort through the Westinghouse plants at East Pittsburgh and Wilmerding on Tuesday and yesterday morning they had a conference with John H. Jones, president of the Pittsburgh-Buffalo Company. In the afternoon Prof. Viallate was escorted through the Homestead steel works by a representative of the Carnegie Steel Company. His two principal calls today will be at the Heinz works and upon Prof. Arthur A. Hammerschlag, director of the Carnegie Technical schools.

GIVE CEMETERY PROPERTY FOR RAILWAY FRANCHISE

Novel Proposition Will Be Made to McKeesport by a Traction Company—More Franchises Wanted.

In the efforts of the Pittsburgh & Westmoreland Street Railway Company to secure an entrance to McKeesport, a plan to purchase a 50-foot strip of the Versailles cemetery property parallel with Versailles avenue, has been formed.

The plan is to offer this property to the city in exchange for a franchise over Eighth avenue. The railway company will erect a viaduct over Evans avenue and White's hollow and donate the cemetery strip to the city for a street. The Versailles cemetery company has already held one meeting, but it is said the price asked was too high and another meeting will be held soon.

The Port Vue Street Railway Company and the Glassport Street Railway Company have both been granted charters and will soon petition McKeesport councils for franchises. The promoters of the Port Vue road are E. W. Pitts, R. T. Carothers, J. F. Woodward, J. W. Jones and Israel Simon. The Glassport line is backed by J. W. Jones, P. J. Morrissey, Israel Simon, Michael Gross and R. E. Stone.

Porter Bradford Has His Troubles.

Henry Bradford, a negro porter, was yesterday held for court in bail of $300 on a charge of desertion preferred by his wife, Mazie, of 408 Jefferson street, Allegheny. Bradford declares his domestic relations were unpleasant and not to his liking and last Friday he left his happy home. His wife got busy with the officers and a warrant for his arrest followed.

Big Revival Is Planned.

The Christian denomination of Allegheny county has leased the old Third Presbyterian church, Sixth avenue, and the structure will be used during the coming winter for revival purposes. The meetings will begin October 29. The Rev. Wallace Thorpe, the Rev. Frederic Gordon and the Rev. W. A. Slater are the committteemen in charge.

SYMPHONIES WILL BE HEARD AT THE EXPO

Damrosch Orchestra Is Closing Its 1905 Engagement With Interesting Programs.

The three remaining Damrosch nights at the Pittsburgh Exposition are to be notable ones. Tonight is symphony night. Tomorrow will be the second Wagnerian night. Saturday evening's performance will, in all probability, close with Hayden's "Farewell Symphony," with which Mr. Damrosch will bid farewell to Pittsburgh. In this composition the players one by one leave the stage, each as he goes blowing out the light of a candle he carries. Finally the director alone is left, who then snuffs his light and slowly retires.

Last evening Mme. Regis Rossini made her initial appearance here as a soloist on the harp and the encores echoed and re-echoed through the music hall.

During the afternoon Manager T. J. Fitzpatrick of the Exposition society received a communication from Director Harry Moore of the Pittsburgh department of public safety, stating there would be no action on the part of the city to prevent the leap of the woman from the window during the production of "Fighting the Flames," the fire show in which Miss Lawrence lost her life on Monday night. The director suggested that mattresses be placed under the windows further to prevent accident. Four huge mattresses were immediately secured and placed under the windows on the asphaltum sidewalk. These mattresses were used at the performance last night, while the leap from the window was given as usual.

The program for this afternoon follows:

WEAKENS BEFORE CHIEF.

Wallace Hedges When Called Upon to Explain Certain Statements to Director Moore.

When Director Moore was on his vacation Superintendent Wallace made several statements that Moore knew of the existence of the Station street gambling house. A few days ago Director Moore asked Wallace what he meant by making such statements.

"Now don't get excited," answered Wallace.

"Yes, but my reputation was assailed and I think some explanation is necessary," demanded the director.

"I merely told the reporters that you knew of the chartered clubs that were conducted in the city limits," said Wallace.

"Oh, is that all," replied the director.

Wallace gave out a number of interviews to the effect that Moore knew of the gambling houses running in the city. However, he denied these statements when brought to task by Director Moore.

Is Chosen Member of School Board.

The Homestead school board yesterday elected Dr. W. H. Langham a member in place of G. K. L. Winkerham, resigned. Prof. William Bogrand of the high school resigned, and Misses Pearl Welsh, Sarah Clark Hare and Martha Elliott were elected teachers to fill vacancies. Miss Ella Daker resigned as instructor in music.

Is Fined for Reckless Driving.

B. F. McElroy, a member of the fire department, residing at 2319 Center avenue, was fined $10 and costs. It is alleged that while intoxicated he telephoned for a livery rig, as his own had broken down. Albert Nealona was sent with the rig, and they were driving at a furious rate when halted by a policeman. Nealona was discharged.

Examinations for state police in this city are under way. The applicants are many and are said to be generally of high grade, physically and intellectually. The same is true in the eastern and central sections of the state. Under these circumstances Capt. Groome should be able to put in the field a fine body of men to enforce the laws. This enforcement is much needed.

A news item tells of an attempt on the part of a trolley road to trade a highway through a cemetery for the right to occupy a street in McKeesport. At first blush there is a gruesome flavor to this commercialism, but it is explained that no violation of the resting places of the dead is contemplated. Nevertheless the item is suggestive of what might happen under an extension of the eminent domain principle.

Progress in the Philippines is well indicated by the abandonment of the coastwise mail service and establishment of regular routes overland. There could hardly be better proof of pacification. Our anti-imperialist friends may remain unconvinced, but no one else doubts the acceptance of American sovereignty by the people of the islands, excepting the barbarous tribes. These are not to be taken into account anywhere.

Last month's tonnage over the Bessemer & Lake Erie railroad establishes a new record. No less than 707,637 tons of freight were moved on this short line during August, an increase of more than 161,000 tons over the same month of last year. This Bessemer increase in tonnage is just about in proportion to the increase in the volume of business in the Pittsburgh district since a year ago, and the calculation spells prosperity in large letters.

Philadelphia's registry lists have been made up without any arrests being made by the police assigned to watch the process. The returns will be made today. Meantime it is understood the correction of the May lists has been thoroughly done with the exhibition of far less irregularities than have been claimed by Director Potter and the City party. In short, the director and the City party leaders have been going to greater extremes on the one side for political effect than ever the assessors went on the other.

Thirteen cases of cholera have occurred in Berlin and one new case has appeared in Hamburg. These figures indicate continuance of the danger, but it is not apprehended an epidemic will result in the German cities. It is probable the infection is widespread in the villages and rural districts of Eastern Prussia and to some extent through Polish Russia. If this is true cases will continue to appear in Western Germany for some time, and constant vigilance will be required to prevent spread of the disease in that quarter.

Disorders have occurred in Tokyo as a result of dissatisfaction with the peace terms. Official advices describe the demonstrations as not serious. The Tokyo press generally expresses the belief the terms to Russia have been too lenient, but the papers advise acceptance in peace. Meantime reports are drifting in of fighting in Manchuria and Northern Korea, resulting generally in the repulse of Russian outposts. These all occurred before the treaty was signed, and it is probable there will be no more encounters of the troops after news of the signing has reached the front. At any rate, this is to be hoped for.

Councilman Roenigk's discovery of neglected ordinances from which possible revenues may be deprived is important in proportion to the extent to which they will be enforced. The revenues already secured are rather insignificant. If all of the ordinances are put in force the returns will be but a tithe of what ought to be obtained from the corporations enjoying public privileges. In short, this hunting of petty sums, however commendable, is in strong contrast to the deliberate violation of administration pledges involved in the voting of extensive public franchises without any compensation whatever.

Protection of the Law.

On another page of this paper appears a communication from an attorney at the Allegheny county bar, which probably expresses the sentiments of a majority of the good people of this city. If Police Superintendent Wallace said what he is quoted as saying, he should not be permitted longer to occupy the important post of superintendent of police. It is not his business, under any circumstances, to "hound" any person out of the city. It is the business of his bureau to protect law-abiding people and to arrest lawbreakers, no more, no less.

The reported utterance of the police superintendent was in connection with a charge of assault preferred against one of his officers. The charge as preferred described an offense a thousandfold more heinous when committed by an officer in uniform. Policemen are sworn to uphold the peace; they are the official protectors of the people. When one of them so far fails in his duty as to commit an offense against the law, he brings discredit on the entire force. To that phase of the matter Superintendent Wallace should have addressed himself. Instead he is reported as threatening dire consequences to the alleged victim because, forsooth, she made public the attack upon her.

Registration Defects.

Forty-one assessors failed to attend to their duties yesterday, and it remains to be seen what will be done about it. In some quarters this negligence is made the basis of an argument for personal registration. But one point is wholly overlooked. It is not the absence of law, but the absence of enforcement that is ailing the registration. Personal registration will cure the evil of permitting names to remain on the registry lists after the death or removal of their owners, but it will not mend the failure to enforce the laws.

Citizens who do not now take the trouble to see that assessors perform their duty will likely be equally negligent about personal registration. The political "machines" may be depended on, of course, to see that assessors are at their posts to register "machine" voters, just as they now see that their men are on the lists. The "anti-machine" element, however, can be depended on to forget to register in much greater proportion than it is omitted by the registry assessors. And it is this "anti-machine" element that is making the most fuss about personal registration.

Caucasus Rebellion.

Reports from the Caucasus region continue to reflect very serious conditions. The war between the Tartars and Armenians has involved the other races there, and the torch, particularly in the oil region, has added to the terrors of the situation. What measures have been taken by the government at St. Petersburg, if any, have not been made public. It is doubtful, however, if adequate troops are anywhere available to cope with so formidable an uprising.

It is equally uncertain whether the revolutionary activity is spreading to other parts of the empire. The Russian news censorship is better organized than the machinery for suppressing disturbances, and the world does not learn of everything that is going on in that country. The diffusion of intelligence through Russia is more hampered than the sending of news to foreign countries, so it is probable a large part of the Russian people have heard nothing whatever about the trouble in the Caucasus district. Many of the people have not yet heard of the mutiny in the navy on the Black sea. This is one of the reasons why revolution is difficult in Russia. The rebellion of a district is spent before the flame reaches another equally discontented center.

Turning the Rascals Out.

When the administration of President Roosevelt is vised by future historians it is likely he will be given more credit for weeding out the grafters of official service than for his initiative in the "profound peace" that is now sealed between Russia and Japan. It will be more to his credit. Above all things Mr. Roosevelt is honest. Let the diplomatic bird plume its wings for its best flight; the solid, the concrete praise for doing things at home gives to the president a halo that will get his bust in the "hall of fame" surer than the glories of intervention.

The postoffice department has been purged and the offenders properly punished. The agricultural department is being thinned of its grafters. The state department has been deodorized, and now comes the printing bureau with its developments and corrections. So far the achievements of President Roosevelt in cleaning the public service of the rascals is as much to his credit as effecting peace in the world. This modern Hercules has partly cleaned the Augean stables. Give him time and he will remove all the political filth that is nesting in the departments of the government at Washington.

There have been other sad occasions when trusted men went wrong. The conscience of the Republican party and its honest leaders is such that it punishes those who ask to escape through "political influence." President Roosevelt, like Grant, when Secretary Belknap was found to be deficient in his accounts, now says "Let no guilty man escape." The parties found out, and some yet to be discovered, will be adjudged severely.

The honor that belongs to the Republican party is this: It punishes its apostles when proven guilty; it condemns the criminal within its ranks. It is the only party that has ever been known to purge itself. True blue Pennsylvania Republicans should make a note of this.

Meters and Revenues.

It has been suggested by some one that Controller Larkin's opposition to metering the water service is to prevent a reduction of indirect revenue from that source. This is not improbable. It is the fact that Pittsburgh is deriving a large revenue from water rents in excess of the cost of maintenance of the plant. This revenue enables a lower assessment of direct taxation than would be otherwise possible. Mr. Larkin's campaign promise of 10 mills on a valuation of $300,000,000 is represented, after more than one term in office, by 15 mills on a valuation of $400,000,000. Without the excess of water rents the millage would be higher. Since Director Bigelow has said the controller ceased to be an Orphan, the controller has become an active apologist for the profligate administration and its spending of the money. A short time ago he was an ardent advocate of the addition of a half-mill to the tax rate to provide for hump reduction, unless the additional revenue might be secured indirectly, say by an increase in water rates.

Experience with meters in many Pittsburgh suburbs—Wilkinsburg, Turtle Creek, Bellevue and others—proves that measured water costs less than one-half the unmeasured rates in Pittsburgh. Domestic consumers rarely exceed the minimum rates established in those towns. Yet the private companies make good profits. They can do so because they pump water for use, not for waste. The "tax on cleanliness" is the excess charged by the city of Pittsburgh to pay for waste and to secure indirect revenue for the purpose of covering extravagant expenditures. If Controller Larkin would make an investigation of water rents in the boroughs on the same lines as his sometime inquiry into the cost of electric lighting, he would soon learn where cleanliness costs most.

It appears the two Thirteenth ward men who were convicted of frauds on the ballot box are guilty, also, of reading the Leader. That paper announces the case of the men disposed of by suspension of sentence. When called in court they were absent. Processes were issued. Whatever punishment they suffer will be deserved for they should have known better than to trust a Leader assertion.

Henry Watterson is still seeking some sound eggs, whereon he can set to hatch out a Democratic party without the tail feathers of Populistic tinge. This is brave talk just now, but it would not be surprising to see Uncle Henry bending in wonder over the Bryan incubator of 1908. It would not be the first time that "Marse" Henry flew the coop.

Hunger, explains the New York Sun, is a contraction of the muscularis of either the pylorus, the stomach, or the duodenum, or of all together. If the contraction is violent it is painful hunger. This diagnoses the condition of the Democrats, the Lincoln party and the Prohibitionsts. They have contracted all together.

A contemporary announced yesterday the destruction of 5,000,000 pounds of oil at Baku. That amount would hardly worry the Russians. More than likely the loss was computed in poods, a Russian measure.

Hon. Lewis Emery, Jr., announces he will not support Plummer. This intelligence fits in with Mr. Emery's record. He has not supported many Republicans since he went out of office.

Controller Larkin's opposition to a reduction of water taxes accords with his record in not reducing other taxes.

Probably 20 fenders will be tested tomorrow, but public interest centers on the one to be chosen.

Russia may not have a revolution on its hands, but it has something dangerously like it.

Patient as Japan has been in war it is kicking violently on the lenience of the peace terms.

Kaiser Wilhelm appears to have been duly impressed by the length of Dr. Barcilfeld.

Magistrate Moke having "vacated," Police Superintendent Wallace is cutting up didos.

Denver will hear more about the civil war this week than ever before in its history.

Cholera persists in Germany, just as though the scientists were not "stamping it out."

Though the Post avers it is not always Democratic, everybody knows better.

Any Pittsburgh railroad that does not haul millions of tons is a tail-ender.

State police examinations are civil enough, but severe.

As to Snakes and Snake Eggs.

To the Editor of The Gazette:

Sir—I beg leave to call your attention to a serious error contained in an article published on the first page of your issue of Tuesday, September 5, and headed "Snake Egg Record Is Broken at Last."

We are inclined to believe that such statements as these emanate from that "father of prevaricators," the "grocery-store naturalist," which compendium of wisdom undoubtedly is responsible for the tale of the "Hoss Hair Snake," supposed to be a stray hair from the tail of the horse inexplicably vivified, likewise of the terrible "Devil's Darning Needle," which sews up the ears of unwary children, etc.

The truth of the matter is that, as even the merest tyro in ophiology knows, the copperhead snake, in common with the rattlesnake and most other venomous serpents, never lays eggs at all, but produces its young alive, or as naturalists say, is viviparous.

Evidently, therefore, the 100 or more eggs discovered at Warricks Mill are either the progeny of some harmless snake, or as we strongly suspect, from the excessive number of them, those of a large turtle. It may not be out of place to state here that there is in course of preparation for free distribution, a work on the reptiles of Pennsylvania, to be issued in the near future by our able and obliging state economic zoologist, Prof. H. A. Surface of Harrisburg, and it is a "consummation devoutly to be wished" that every editor in the state procure a copy of this book and polish up on this interesting subject.

Yours very truly,
W. R. WALTON.

Vilifiers of the State.

J. Lee Plummer, Republican nominee for state treasurer, struck the right note in his address at the Grangers' picnic at Williams' grove. It has become a habit with yellow newspapers and more yellow politicians to vilify Pennsylvania and hold the Keystone state up as a horrible example. There are about the same proportion of bad men in politics in Pennsylvania as force their way into public affairs in other states, but we seem to have an undue preponderance of the sort of persons who delight in the disparagement of their home commonwealth.—Johnstown Tribune.

You have been there, of course, unless you are quite young, or was born to a life of misfortune.

Attacks of love fever, or as it is generally termed, "calf love," or "puppy love," are as sure as measles and whooping cough. But unlike these, you are liable to have several attacks.

And it sometimes proves fatal, not by causing physical death, but by driving young folks to run off and get married when they ought to be at home under the care of their mothers.

Parents often make the mistake of neglecting their children when attacked with love fever. Such mistakes are as dangerous as neglecting them when attacked by chickenpox or scarlet fever.

Mr. Quiet Observer—I beg to hand you a dialect poem from the American Illustrated Magazine (Leslie's) for this month, and ask at your hands a philosophical explanation of the physical and mental mix-up we all experience when taken with a severe attack of sentimental love, and which this poem defines better than I can.

In my younger days I was smitten about semi-annually and while I experienced no bad effects, I was in a terrible stew while the trouble lasted. Perhaps the acquisition of a family and the responsibilities of life keep a man from going "into the air" no matter how much he may admire and love his wife.

Certainly, in the susceptible days of youth—and even old age—the "women folks" can by simply being and acting themselves, make more kinds of a fool out of one man than I could define to you. Why and how the glance of a pair of black eyes can twist a young man's brain, rob him of his appetite and, in general, put him "bughouse" is more than I can understand—but it seems to be true—you can prove it by me—and yourself, perhaps.

If you have in your dispensary any philosophy or explanation, give it out for the benefit of present and future generations of men—perhaps they may act the fool less than we older men have done. AN OLD-TIME LOVER.

Parkers Landing, Pa.

This is a sort of spiritual phenomena, the spirit coming from whence you know not, and going whither you know not, or care not.

It must be all right, since it is a natural sort of phenomena and so universal, being common to all nations, tribes and tongues.

In fact, it is common to the animal kingdom from the elephant to the mite. It affects the male more than the female. This accounts for the aggressiveness of the male admirer or lover.

Were it not so mating would not be so universal and animal life would not be maintained. It is in obedience to the first great command given in the Garden of Eden to multiply and replenish the earth.

* * *

The "calf love" period in a boy's life is one of the most important periods occurring between his birth and death, and yet it is allowed to pass as a sort of joke. Of late years educators and sociologists have been calling attention to it, but parents and teachers, as a rule, take but little note of it.

President Hall of Clarke university, startled Chautauqua a few years ago with a series of lectures on adolescence, in which he showed this to be one of the most important periods in the lives of boys and girls.

It is during this period that tastes and habits are formed, and when formed they are very hard to break up or to change. This being a formation period tastes and moral tendencies are included in the new formation and become as much a part of the individual as do other elements of character.

* * *

Mr. Quiet Observer—I have long been a reader of your most interesting column, and have read many discussions concerning marriage, especially among school teachers, whether it would be advisable or not—in short, whether happiness or misery would be the result, so I decided I should like to advance some of my ideas about why marriage is a failure.

A woman falls in love with a man because he tells her that she is the most interesting and beautiful creature that it has been his lot to meet, and that life without her would be nothing.

A man falls in love with a woman because she tells him how brave and handsome he is—usually she means not a word of it.

Then comes the crash! Companionship finds out home truths and destroys those perfect opinions they held of each other before marriage, all their shortcomings are brought to light. No human being ever held the slightest conception of the faults he or she is heir to until after their marriage, and their errors are pointed out to them by husband or wife.

In our contact with the world society enlarges, at least in our presence, upon our virtues and speaks seldom of our vices. How deplorable the situation is in the family circle where entirely the opposite prevails. Each little office of kindness is accepted as the ordinary while all of their mistakes are enlarged upon. This I believe to be the greatest disappointment in married life. What people really marry for is to get some one to admire, praise—in short, to love them.

No one would think of saying to their friends outside what they do to members of their own family. Society would publicly ostracize them.

If each were to use the courtesy toward each other that they use toward their neighbors, all this unhappiness would be at an end, and married life would present altogether a different aspect. The use of flattery would prove very helpful along the way.

After about two years, sometimes sooner, the novelty wears off, then the wife by her actions, permits the husband to see that he is not at all what she thought him, altogether a different creature. He, in turn, appraises her of the fact that she is not the "angel" he thought her.

Criticism makes life dull, none of us take pleasure in having our faults enumerated. The trouble lies here. Neither one of them will give to the other the flattery for which their hearts are hungering. A fatal mistake is made by this omission. If you do not offer those words some one else will—then misery.

Matrimony is no place for candor. It is an opportunity for diplomacy and flattery to do their greatest work, and if husband and wife expect to have a home, the kind fancy pictures to them, they must learn to praise instead of censure. CHRISTINE.

MORE THAN A MILLION TAKE THEIR VACATION

New Yorkers Enjoy Themselves. Mother-in-Law Joke in Real Life—Gossip of Gotham.

By FRANK A. PARKER.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—New Yorkers are great for vacations. It has been discovered by a statistician that the total number of people who left the city for a time during the past summer was 1,620,000, of whom 920,000 had vacations of two weeks or more, and 700,000 took shorter vacations and week-end outings. It is also stated that 20,000 New Yorkers took trips across the ocean and spent part of the summer in Europe. The great majority of the vacationers, however, took to the mountains and not as many as usual went to Long Island and the Jersey coast resorts. This is explained by the fact that New Yorkers have sea air all the year and when vacation times comes, those who can do so seek a change.

Just now the vacationers are flocking back to the city in droves. They are coming so fast that the railroads find it impossible to take care of their baggage promptly, and great piles of it are lying in the baggage rooms. Some will not get their trunks before next week and will be compelled to "live in their valises."

Just why everybody seems to think it necessary to return to the city on the first of September, no one will ever know. It is true that the climate of New York city is most pleasant in the fall—when it isn't raining, as it has been most of the time lately—but it should also be remembered that autumn is the most delightful time of the year in the country. This cannot, however, prevent the vacationers flocking back to the city; perhaps they don't know how beautiful the country is in September.

Political Rumor Mill Works Full Time.

The political rumor mill is extremely busy these days, and the chief job is to grind out a fusion candidate for mayor. Since Mr. Jerome's refusal there has been talk of Charles A. Schieren, former mayor of Brooklyn, but he has announced that he doesn't want it. Today it is stated that Mr. Odell's preference is Postmaster Willcox, and he is waiting to hear from President Roosevelt on the subject. Another question is the district attorneyship. Mr. Jerome has nominated himself for the place, and Tammany threatens to indorse him. He would surely go upon the fusion ticket were it not that the Municipal Ownership league objects. That objection may be overcome, however, in time to make it unanimous.

Women's Club to Boom McClellan.

Thus early the women are getting into the fray. Although Mayor McClellan had not been counting upon their support, he is going to get at least part of it. A meeting has been called for Friday afternoon at which the Woman's National Democratic league will be organized, also a local branch, whose object will be to work for "Jeffersonian Democratic principles in general and the election of Mayor McClellan in particular," to quote from the call issued by Mrs. John Sherwin Crosby. Mrs. Crosby is the founder and president of the Henry George Single Tax league.

McAdoo Coming to the Rescue.

That famous ride of Sheridan when he was needed at Winchester will pale into insignificance when compared to the ride of Police Commissioner McAdoo. The commissioner went away up in the woods to enjoy a vacation, and during his absence the crooks have been busy. He has heard of it, and this morning he wired that he would be in the city Thursday, prepared to go after the thieves with every branch of his department. "Beating up the counties," is a new expression of the thieves. It means that they are robbing the homes of those who have gone on vacations, leaving no one to guard the premises. It is not likely that the thieves are much perturbed by Mr. McAdoo's announcement of his return.

Schools Still Overcrowded.

New York needs just about 25,000 more sittings to be able to accommodate all the school children. This means that 70,000 pupils can go to school the coming winter only half of the time. Last year 91,818 pupils were on half time, and since then several new school houses have been finished, but the number of children of school age has grown more rapidly than the facilities for educating them. The schools opened today for registration, and will be open again for the same purpose tomorrow. They open regularly next Monday.

Prefer Prison to School.

Public school 37 in Brooklyn is under the ban. Parents have declared that they would rather send their children to jail than to school in that building. The cause of the trouble is that the building faces a swamp two blocks long, in which stagnant water and mosquitoes constantly menace the health of the children. The board of health has been holding an investigation, and the school board is expected to take some action. Meanwhile, there is certain to be no overcrowding in that one school building, at least.

Mother-in-Law Joke in Real Life.

Isaac Torf, a young Russian, came to this country a year ago, and by constant work and by saving got money enough to send for his bride, whom he had married just before setting out for a new land. This morning she was to arrive, and he arrayed himself in his best Sunday gear and went to Ellis island to meet her. But it was her mother who smiled out upon him through the steel bars. "Ah, you young rascal," she said to him. "I wasn't going to let my daughter come over here until I found out how you were doing." It took three hours for the immigration officials to persuade Isaac to take his mother-in-law home with him. Now he will have to begin saving all over again for his wife's passage money.

ABOUT DOGS AND CATS AND THEIR CUPIDITY

Kitten's Life Saved by a Dog. Pussy Opens Window—Dog's Ruse to Get a Walk.

A cat belonging to a departmental professor at Chalons-sur-Marne, France, had kittens, and the owner wishing to keep only one of them, gave the order to drown the rest. But by an unfortunate mistake of the servant who was acting as executioner, one of the kittens, instead of being carried away by the stream, remained on the mud heap a little distance from the bank. The poor cat, which had followed the servant, waited till the latter had disappeared, and then vainly tried to get the kitten back. The distance, however, was too great, and its efforts were fruitless.

Meanwhile its desperate mewing had been heard by a dog belonging to a neighbor, an enormous Danish dog, mother of a litter of pups. It ran to the spot, and although it and the cat were not as a rule on friendly terms, all differences seemed momentarily forgotten, and the rivalries of race and neighborhood disappeared before a most laudable feeling of solidarity.

As if pitying the distress and anxiety of its former enemy, the dog stretched forward, took hold of the kitten, which was half dead with fear and covered with mud, deposited it near its mother, and remained close by showing the keenest interest in the rejoicing and the subsequent washing of the mite.

Kidnaps Kitten It Rescued.

But presently the scene changed. As soon as the poor mother had put its kitten into clean garments, so to speak, it tried to carry it away; but the dog, which so far had sat perfectly still, got up, began to growl in the most threatening manner, and, with a heavy stroke of its large paw, made the mother put the baby down. The poor, terrified cat, not daring to enter upon a fight, the issue of which was bound to be unfavorable to it, crouched in front of its kitten, which now was threatened by a new danger, and mewed dolefully and helplessly.

The dog, however, took no notice, but, taking the kitten gently between his teeth as if it were a precious game bird, carried it in triumph, with tail erect, to its litter. For a week it fed its new nursling as it fed its own children, and the kitten and the pups played wildly exciting games together in peace and unity. But, alas! on the night of the ninth day the heavy Danish dog in its sleep suffocated the small foster child which it had saved from drowning and made welcome in its own domain.

Pussy Learns to Open Window.

My cat is 12 years old and an ordinary tabby. Since it was delicate as a kitten, I always let it sleep in the kitchen on the ground floor, from which a large window overlooks a yard. In this window is one pane which opens separately by means of a latch.

When it was about two years old, the cat, no doubt finding the night long, taught itself to open this pane and get out through it. At first when the cook told me about it I was incredulous, knowing that servants have a way of making their cat responsible for any little negligence of their own. But as the window was found open every morning I was bound to believe it. Since then I have seen the cat do the trick a hundred times, for once it knew that we had discovered it at it, it no longer made a secret of it. Its way of doing it was to jump upon the inner sill, push the latch upwards with the tip of its nose and pull the framework back with its paw. It did this as easily as a human being would do it with the hand.

The most amusing part is that one of this cat's descendants, perceiving that its mother knew the secret of getting outside, taught itself the same trick in quite a short time. This kitten opened any sideboard or cupboard, in which the key had not been turned, by pulling the door towards it with the greatest dexterity.

Dog's Ruse to Get a Walk.

Another correspondent, writing from Grasse, immortalizes the feat of opening the front door as practiced by a small fox terrier. The master of Sadik explains that the house is built on the flank of a hill and has two doors, of which the principal one leads into a lively street, while the back door leads across a small garden from the basement to a blind alley.

At the beginning of spring the dog got into the habit of escaping through the front door, which was often open, to enjoy a walk in the neighboring quarter. After the walk it presented itself at the back of the house near the entrance of the garden, and whined miserably till the soft-hearted cook came out and opened the gate for it. Lately, however, its owner, considering these walks infra dig. for his well-born dog, had the front door guarded so that Sadik could not get out. The poor dog had to stay indoors several days and looked dejected enough at missing what no doubt was a pleasant entertainment. Meanwhile it bethought itself of a ruse.

The front door having been definitely forbidden, and the basement door only opening by means of human intervention, Sadik hid in a small recess inside the door, and there began to whine in a dismal manner, which it assumed when bent on appealing to the soft heart of the cook. The latter, believing it to be in the lane, as usual, rushed out and opened the gate. That was all Sadik asked for, and it rushed out at a bound. Of course the trick was soon detected, but it was amusing while it lasted.

Truth Always Prevails.

Up in Mardin county the Republicans held their county convention the other day. The town of Forest, a temperance stronghold, sent as delegates three Methodist ministers. Two of these ministers had said they were opposed to the re-election of Gov. Herrick. The chairman of the convention, Judge Hoge, made an address in which he gave the records of the two parties on temperance legislation in Ohio, and during the noon recess the two ministers in question investigated the statements of the judge. At the afternoon session the two ministers announced they were initiated their former position was wrong and they joined with the other delegates in passing strong Herrick resolutions.—Cincinnati Commercial Gazette.

All Sufficient.

The czar is said to be determined not to permit the name of Astor Wilde to appear in large type on the program. Still, the gallery knows who rescued the maiden.—Chicago Record Herald.

BACK TO TOWN.

From the moonpath glen and the mill sea fen
By trail and lake by train,
A cry rings up to the autumn sky;
It's "Hey for the town again!"
We have had enough of the things in the rough,
Of the rural room and star;
We'll be glad to hear, though it may sound queer,
The song of the trolley car!

We have trooted and trolled, we have barcarolled,
Where the long lake's ripples gleam;
We have scaled the height of Jessica Gilligh,
Dreaming the eerie dream;
Now the school dame from their harming home
From the open and the play—
From the gray four-fifths of the avenue,
And the four-ply of Broadway.

That we long to march in the city of starch
All proper, precise and prim,
Why a "hoyden do?" and a "hoit are you,"
Is this though it's somewhat grim,
Back from the free of the open sea,
From the green of earth and hay,
To the sound and race of the treadmill pace
Of New York, it's back to the town again!

Interesting Happenings About the People Who Are Traveling.

"I do not know of a town that is growing more rapidly than my own," said Ed. S. Lee of Cotharin, O. Mr. Lee is a business man of Cotharin and a frequent Pittsburgh visitor. "In 1900 Cotharin had a population of 1,500 in round numbers. Now it is close to the 3,000 mark. It has not been a boom growth. The town has enjoyed remarkable prosperity. It began growing about 1900, when the novelty advertising industry was inaugurated by J. F. Week, one of the state's pioneer editors. It soon led the country in the production of this character of goods. Week is now a very rich man. But the town has potteries, steel and iron factories, an abrasion and the like. I consider it the prettiest town of its size in the country, and that is saying a lot."

An Indiana Celebrity Passes Through.

The Hon. F. M. D. McKinley of Lafayette, Ind., was a Pittsburgh visitor yesterday, en route home from Atlantic City. Mr. McKinley is nearing the 70-year mark. He is well-known in Indiana politics. He has been an editor, theatrical manager and politician since the memory of man runneth not to the contrary. He has the distinction of having served his city for 11 years as mayor. A Democrat in a Republican town and county, he was never beaten when a candidate for re-election. Finally, in 1902, he declined to make the canvass for a tenth term. Then he took charge of the local opera house and made friends right and left during his managerial career. He is now enjoying the fruits of a well-directed and prosperous career.

Taggart Trial Is Engrossing.

J. M. Taylor of Orrville, O., is at the Monongahela. He is following the progress of the Taggart divorce case with the interest that springs from personal acquaintance with the principals. "I happen to know Capt. Taggart and his wife," said Mr. Taylor. "I do not presume to pass on the merits of the case, but I do know that all Orrville is following the testimony with interest. Orrville is the home of the Taggarts. Both the captain and his wife have stood high in the estimation of the townspeople. Naturally sentiment is divided." It is Mr. Taylor's declaration that practically half the town is present in Wooster, where the trial is in progress. It rose in years has so engrossed public attention. Wooster was the home of the late John McSweeney, who divided with Tom Marshall of Pittsburgh honor as the greatest criminal lawyer of his day. M. L. Sweeney, who is attorney for Mrs. Taggart, was formerly a congressman from the Wooster district. He is regarded as the ablest lawyer Wayne county has produced since McSweeney was gathered to his fathers.

Kumler Agrees With Stead.

"Somebody said in fun that Pittsburgh was 'full with the Hill of.' Think it was Stead, the British editor. Whoever it was, he put it right," said H. E. Kumler, editor of the Dayton (O.) News, who was in town yesterday on his return from the Adirondacks, where he had spent his vacation. It was Mr. Kumler's first visit to Pittsburgh, and he spent the day in the mill districts. "I have never seen the like." he went on to say. "You have here the busiest spot in the world. There is everything to attract the energetic man and the millionaire. But I do not believe I would like to live here." Mr. Kumler was accompanied by his aged mother, who is on her way to the Ohio town after spending the summer in the region about the Catskills.

Grosvenor Not to Be Beaten.

"The unusual complexity on the tariff of Congressman Grosvenor has begun," said T. H. Poote of Athens, O., at the Henry. "But it will be history repeated. The candidacy of the Republican party will succeed Myers. Grosvenor is too well intrenched in the party in his district to be defeated. He has been attached almost every time he has come forward as a candidate for renomination, and just as regularly he has been returned in convention. It will be the same now. Grosvenor is in the Philippines. His opponents are taking advantage of his absence to work up a campaign against him. But it is safe to say that 'Charley,' as he is affectionately known throughout the Athens district, will serve the lower house until he is gathered to his fathers."

Says Pattison Will Win.

John Q. A. Baker, editor of the Middletown (O.) News, was a visitor to Pittsburgh yesterday. He was on his way to New York in the interest of his paper. Mr. Baker was exceedingly optimistic in his views of Ohio politics from a Democratic standpoint. "I really believe that Gov. Herrick will be defeated next November," he said. "The disaffection in the Republican party is more marked than at any period since I have had opportunity to observe events. Of course, this is my individual opinion, but I will risk it on my reputation as a prophet. Mr. Hunt is growing. It will be remembered, better as the headquarters of the late Paul J. Sorg, the tobacco man. Middletown was a tobacco and cigar center for years, but it is now confining out after diversified industries. One thing we have adopted in an advertising way which I never have seen duplicated in any of the towns on all the railroads centering here. These boards tell of the advantages of the city as a manufacturing and residential district. We have a population of 23,000. Ten years ago our population was just four figures. Advertising and natural advantages have made us grow."

YOUNG MAN CONFESSES TO KILLING HIS FATHER

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CONNELLSVILLE, PA., Sept. 6.—Shot down in his home by a bullet fired from a revolver in the hands of his own son, George W. Jones, aged 56 years, last night drew his last breath in his dwelling house yard at Everson, near here. According to the story of his son John, aged 22, who acknowledged that he fired the fatal shot, the father entered his home in Maple street, Everson, shortly after 11 o'clock last night. He went to the room of his wife and according to the young man, then broke into his room, where he was sleeping with his brother Charles, aged 14 years.

The boys had not been on good terms with their father and they say he evidently had had several drinks. As soon as he broke into their room, they say, he fired a shot from a revolver at Charles. Reaching under his pillow, John secured his revolver and shot his father through the heart. The wounded man staggered out into the street, but retraced his steps and fell dead in his yard.

The duel is the outcome of trouble of long standing between father and son. The neighbors say the father frequently upbraided the boys because they did not contribute to the support of the family. The mother sided with the sons. Altogether there are five sons and one daughter. John, who did the shooting, is employed in the Old Meadow rolling mill. His story of the affray is upheld by his brother, who was with him in the room at the time, and by his mother. Today the son was taken to the Uniontown jail and Coroner Hagan held an inquest this afternoon and after hearing the evidence the jury rendered a verdict that Jones came to his death from gunshot wounds inflicted by his son, John Jones, in self-defense. The case will be brought before the grand jury as soon as possible and it is almost certain that young Jones will be released.

COMMIT SLAYER TO JAIL.

Marcus Murray Probably Contemplated Killing Paramour at New Kensington.

NEW KENSINGTON, PA., Sept. 6.—(Special.)—Marcus, alias "Mac," Murray of Deer township, who last night stabbed Mary Orris, alias Mary Smackenhamer, to death in Second avenue, this city, was committed to the jail at Greensburg this morning by Justice of the Peace M. J. McGeary, who held him on a charge of murder. Three witnesses were unable to furnish bond and were sent to jail with the prisoner.

One of them was Susie Peterman, a companion of the slain woman, who declared that Murray and the Orris woman, who left her husband some time ago, had a quarrel and Murray refused to make it up. Last week Murray approached Officer Miller of the local force and told him that he would be in New Kensington next week and that he (Miller) had better prepare a room in the lockup, as there would be occasion for him to occupy it. It is now thought he contemplated the killing and wanted to make it dramatic in the presence of the carnival throng which crowded the streets.

CONDUCTOR LEHR HAS TROUBLES OF HIS OWN

IRWIN, PA., Sept. 6.—(Special.)—C. V. Lehr, Pennsylvania freight conductor, who is under $1,000 bail, charged by his Irwin wife with bigamy, is again in jail on a charge of larceny and receiving stolen goods, brought by the railroad company. Lehr was running the local freight between Pitcairn and Youngwood. When Lehr became involved in his marital troubles officers received a tip that resulted in unearthing much plunder which, it is alleged, Lehr had hidden.

It is thought that Lehr was at the head of a gang that has been operating in the vicinity between the points of his run, and more arrests are expected to be made. Besides this charge, Mrs. Lehr has brought a charge of adultery, naming a Pittsburgh woman, alleged to be wife No. 2, and for non-support. Lehr was unable to secure a bondsman.

SHOWS OPPOSITION TO NEW CITIZENS TICKET

Member of Washington County Democratic Committee Files Exceptions.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, PA., Sept. 6.—The opposition to the new Citizens fusion movement in Washington county among the straight Democrats, who claim to want their own ticket, culminated today when exceptions were filed in the local courts to the nomination of J. A. Huffman of Somerset township, both Democratic and Citizens candidate for county commissioner.

The exception proceedings were brought by J. M. Ralston of Washington, a member of the Democratic county committee. In the petition it is asked that Huffman's nomination be declared wholly void as a Democratic action, it being alleged that it was not made according to the rules of the Democratic party.

Similar action is also to be instituted against W. B. Crothers of Blaine township, nominee for the director of the poor, and A. B. Cochrane of McDonald, candidate for coroner. It is probable that an outside judge will be asked to hear the case and render a decision, as of the local judges, Judge Taylor is a Republican nominee for re-election and Judge McIlvaine is a cousin of Mrs. Huffman.

J. D. Pollick and W. H. Ecker were the regularly nominated candidates of the Democratic party for county commissioner. Pollock withdrew and a committee of three Democrats, appointed by the county chairman, then selected Huffman. This was contrary to the rules of the Democratic party, which state that nomination vacancies can be filled only by a majority vote of the entire county committee, consisting of 120 committeemen.

FIRE FIGHTERS IN TROUBLE.

Kittanning Laddies Are Charged With Gambling or Conducting Gambling Devices.

KITTANNING, PA., Sept. 6.—(Special.)—The Kittanning paddle wheel has gotten several members of hose company No. 3 into the criminal court. When Constable J. C. Crum made his quarterly return to the September court of quarter sessions there was attached to it an envelope with a special delivery stamp, in which there there were six specific charges of gambling or conducting gambling devices, one for each of the six nights of the recent street fair, against members of the above company.

The court directed the district attorney to issue processes for the ones charged and prepare indictments against them to be presented to the grand jury. The persons for whom processes were issued appeared before the prothonotary and entered bail in the sum of $200 each for their appearance. John G. Ayres went on the bonds of the accused.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

RIDGWAY, PA., Sept. 6.—The annual Erie conference of the Methodist Episcopal church began its seventieth session at Ridgway this morning. Bishop J. N. Fitzgerald of St. Louis is presiding. The secretary, the Rev. W. P. Graham of Brookville, who was re-elected, called the roll and 147 members responded. Memorial services for the Rev. W. H. Messman and the Rev. W. P. Elgnell, both late of Greenville, and Mrs. R. M. Warren of Chautauqua, N. Y., and Mrs. T. J. Hamilton of Rouseville, were held, the Rev. S. M. Gordon, the Rev. R. S. Borland, the Rev. A. R. Rich and the Rev. L. L. Swisher participating.

Immediately following the bishop, assisted by the presiding elders administered the sacrament of the Lord's Supper. The Rev. George Collier was re-elected statistical secretary and assistants to the secretaries and standing committees were named. The Rev. W. F. Anderson of New York, secretary of the board of education, addressed the conference and made the startling statement that the church was aiding 300 less students in their schools now preparing for the ministry than seven years ago. The Rev. Frank L. Hart of Chicago, addressed the conference in the interest of the fire insurance company of the church which carries $2,000,000 insurance in Pennsylvania alone. The Rev. Dr. Horner of Pittsburgh, represented the book depository in that city. In the afternoon the Rev. S. J. Herben of Chicago, editor of the Epworth Herald, the organ of the Young Peoples society, delivered a strong address urging faith, fidelity and service on the part of the youth of Methodism.

NEGRO FARMER BLOWS BROTHER'S BRAINS OUT

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

BEAVER FALLS, PA., Sept. 6.—William Washington, a respectable negro farmer living in North Sewickley township, was shot and killed by his weak-minded brother, Thomas, this morning. William was sitting at the breakfast table and Thomas crept up behind him and blew his brains out with a double-barreled shotgun and then fled. The mother of the men was in an outbuilding at the time and it was she who discovered the crime and notified the police.

George Wesnington, another brother, made information to the police against his brother and the latter was arrested at the farm of another brother in New Brighton township. He made no resistance and was placed in the lockup here. In addition to being weak-minded he is entirely deaf and partially dumb and after being arrested said: "Some people will do things and then they get it when they least expect it." This is all he would say.

For years Thomas has had a mania for shooting people and things and the family has endeavored to keep firearms hidden. It is a mystery where the shotgun was procured. The firearm was afterwards found in a barn on the farm where the man had hidden it. An inquest will be held Saturday.

GUNNERS GO UNDER STEAMER.

Peculiar Drowning of Two Men Who Were Seeking a "Tow" in the Delaware.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 6.—Capt. Miller of the steamer Belle Miller, from Annapolis, Md., for Philadelphia, who arrived here tonight, reports the drowning of two men off Edgemoor, Del., at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Capt. Miller said that the two men, who were in a gunning skiff, desired to be towed up the Delaware river, to what point he did not know. When the skiff drew close to the Belle Miller one of the men stood up in the bow of the boat and brought a line to the Miller. The rope fell short and the gunning skiff with the men was drawn under the steamer. A boat was launched immediately, but Capt. Miller says that the bodies did not appear on the surface of the water after they disappeared under the boat.

CUMBERLAND, MD., Sept. 6.—(Special.)—Father B. Knepper celebrated his 89th birthday anniversary at his home in Wellersburg, Pa., near Mt. Savage, today. He is even yet often called upon to perform ministerial rites for former friends in his congregation.

NEW CASTLE, PA., Sept. 6.—(Special.)—A continuous performance of painting the high school building is threatened here, for last night the seniors daubed it with red paint, not to be outdone by the juniors, who defaced it with yellow the night previous. The paint cannot be removed from the stones by chemicals and will have to be chiseled off.

MAN ATTACKS TWO WOMEN ON THE DUQUESNE BRIDGE

One Has All Her Clothes Torn Off. Policeman Arrives in Time to Save the Other.

With nearly all her clothes torn off and her body bruised, scratched and bleeding, Mrs. Annie Holmes of McKeesport staggered into the Duquesne police station late Tuesday night. A few minutes later her alleged assailant, William ("Butch") Hope, for whom the Duquesne and McKeesport police have been looking for some time, was under arrest. The arrest was made just in time to save Mrs. Patrick Lamb from the same experience that Mrs. Holmes had just gone through. Mrs. Holmes was compelled to borrow a policeman's gum coat in which to go home.

Mrs. Lamb was screaming for help on the Duquesne bridge when the policeman arrived. Hope jumped over the railing of the bridge, alighting in a brick yard. He was rendered unconscious by the fall and suffered severe injury to one of his legs. He was unable to walk and was sent to the police station in a delivery wagon.

When the Duquesne authorities are through with Hope he will be handed over to a constable from Alderman Langsdorf's office in McKeesport and given a hearing on charges of assault and battery and attempt to commit a felony, which have been preferred against him by both women.

Hope is said to have planned the assault deliberately. He went to the home of Mrs. Holmes and told her a friend was ill in Duquesne and that she was asked to call. Requesting Mrs. Lamb to accompany her, she started on foot, and encountered Hope at the Duquesne end of the bridge, where he was waiting for her.

LIVINGSTON, MONT., Sept. 6.—Miss Fannie Wickes, aged 22, of Washington, D. C., died in this city today from the effects of falling into a boiling spring in the Yellowstone National park, several days ago.

In company with other eastern tourists, Miss Wickes was making a tour of the park, and while viewing a geyser, stepped backward in an effort to dodge the blinding spray of the spouter, and fell into a hot spring in which the water was fairly bubbling. Her body was literally cooked from the waist down, and death ensued after a period of intense agony.

Thirty Days for Hitting Judge.

C., Sept. 6.—The supreme court today denied the application of ex-Mayor McCown of Durham for a writ of habeas corpus and directed that he serve his term of 30 days in jail to which he was sentenced for cursing and striking Judge George Ward of the superior court, because the judge refused to increase the sentence of a man who had killed McCown's brother-in-law.

NO ATTENTION PAID TO THE LAW

Forty-One Assessors Fail to Take Their Registration Books to the Polling Places.

ARMSTRONG WANTS PARDON

In at least 41 districts of the county the assessors have not had their original registry lists at the polling places on September 5 and 6, as they are directed by law to do. When the commissioners' office closed Tuesday night over 100 registers had not performed their labor. Over three score of these officials took out their books yesterday, but 41 men made no effort to obey the act of assembly.

Today the assessors are to turn in their complete registry lists. Yesterday several of the officials appeared at the commissioners' office and offered their books, saying they had completed the registration. The books were refused and the assessors ordered to return to their polling places and remain until 9 o'clock last night.

The slipshod methods of this year in registration are but a repetition of what has been going on in the county for years. The commissioners have no authority over the assessors and have no right to correct the registry lists. A year ago there were 219,000 voters registered in the county. About 112,000 men voted for president. Of the 107,000 votes unaccounted for there were some stay-at-homes, but the great majority represents men who have died or have removed from the district or county.

Many Names Duplicated.

Non-property holders, who frequently change their residences, are often on the registry lists of several districts at the same time. The assessor does not go to the trouble to canvass his district to ascertain the names of those qualified to be registered. He receives $34 for the year's work and many of the assessors do not think this sufficient compensation to make a real registration.

The assessors of these districts did not take out their registry lists:

Pittsburgh—First and Second districts, Third ward; Second district, Fifth ward; Fourth and Eleventh district, Thirteenth ward; Eleventh district, Fourteenth ward; Seventh district, Sixteenth ward; Sixth district, Nineteenth ward; Fourth district, Twenty-fifth ward; Seventh district, Twenty-seventh ward; Fourth district, Thirty-sixth ward; Thirty-ninth ward.

Allegheny—First district, Second ward; Seventh district, Third ward; Third district, Ninth ward; Fourth district, Tenth ward.

McKeesport—Ninth ward.

County Assessors Negligent.

Boroughs and townships—Second and Third districts, McKees Rocks; Osborne borough; Third district, Sharpsburg; Second district, Sheraden; First district, West Liberty; Third district of First ward, Wilkinsburg; Fifth district, Chartiers township; Second district, Finley township; First district, Harmer township; Third district, Indiana township; First district, Jefferson township; Lincoln township; Fourth district, Lower St. Clair township; Third and Fifth districts, North Versailles township; Third district, O'Hara township; First district, Patton township; Fourth district, Shaler township; First district, South Fayette township; Sterrett township; First district, West Deer township.

There is to be a conference of the Citizens leaders in the mayor's office this morning to decide on a man for chairman of the county committee. The committee is to meet Saturday and elect the man picked at today's conference. As Controller Larkin has announced he has a promise from Bigelow and Hays that Murry A. Verner will not be allowed to participate in the party councils it will be interesting to note whether Verner is barred from the meeting today.

Armstrong Wants Pardon.

Select Councilman Richard Armstrong of the Fifteenth ward of Allegheny has applied to the pardon board for a pardon for an offense committed several years ago. His case will be heard on September 20. Several years ago Armstrong was convicted on a charge of corrupt solicitation in connection with the election of a city engineer in Allegheny. He was sentenced to serve a term in jail, which he did. Last year he was elected a member of select council and some time ago quo warranto proceedings were begun to oust him on the ground his conviction disqualifies him from holding office.

The application for pardon is made in the hope of straightening the kinks in Armstrong's record. R. B. Petty, attorney for Armstrong, says: "Under the law a man convicted of corrupt solicitation cannot hold office, but if the pardon board grants a pardon, the restriction is removed." Mr. Petty will not say that a pardon will enable Armstrong to continue to hold his seat.

John Marron, the attorney for those interested in ousting Armstrong, says he is doubtful if the pardon board has jurisdiction. He admits an interesting question in law has been raised.

James C. Smith and Charles Crawford, convicted of stuffing a ballot box in the Thirteenth ward last spring, failed to appear in criminal court yesterday for sentence as expected. Judge Evans, before whom they were tried, issued processes for them but they had not been found when court adjourned. Their bonds had been forfeited last Saturday.

COMMISSIONERS AWARD CONTRACTS FOR BRIDGES

County Will Also Buy 250,000 Feet of Lumber to Repair Plank Roads.

The county commissioners let a number of contracts yesterday for bridge building and repair work. Bids were received for the purchase of 250,000 feet of oak plank to be used in mending the plank roads recently purchased by the county. The figures have not been tabulated. The lumber will cost about $6,200.

J. C. Marshall received the contract for redecking bridge No. 2 on Little Deer Creek. His bid was $176. John Kippert, Jr. will fill the approaches to bridge No. 5 on Flahertys run and No. 10 on Montour run. For the first job he will receive $580 and for second contract $980.

The masonry and concrete contract for bridge No. 4 on Thompsons run has been awarded to Fred Wilsman, Sr., for $4,600. The superstructure will be built of the Penn Bridge Company at a cost of $4,389.

Unknown's Body on the Tracks.

The body of an unknown man was found on the tracks of the Pennsylvania railroad at Pitcairn yesterday morning. He was about 32 years old and was poorly dressed. In one of his pockets was found a piece of paper with the name Clark McKnown, and two Oil City papers.

CITIZENS LOSE ON REGISTRATION

Reformers in Philadelphia Find Thousands of Their Own Fail to Qualify.

REPUBLICANS ARE OVERJOYED

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
Press Building,
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 6.

Investigation of the assessors' lists, the purging of which was completed at 9 o'clock tonight, has had a depressing effect upon the forces under the leadership of ex-Judge James G. Gordon, manager of the Weaver-Wanamaker syndicate. It shows that in the slaughter the reformers have suffered a greater percentage of loss than the combined Republican and Democratic city organizations. This fact was confirmed tonight when a loud wail was sounded at the headquarters of the City party.

Hundreds, if not thousands, of men now affiliated with the City party, formerly with the Union party, find that their names are not on the assessors' lists. They cannot understand it. Most of them admit they have not voted for years and made no effort to be registered, for the reason, as they put it, "if we did vote our votes would not have been counted."

Not until the assessors file their revised lists with the county commissioners tomorrow will it be possible to make a comparison between the present assessment and the one made in May. Republican leaders still stick to their original estimate that the present canvass will not show a loss of more than 15,000 names, the actual loss being closely confined to deaths and removals from the city. They also say that this loss will be nearly covered by the December assessment, when 10,000 voters, now at shore and mountain resorts, will have returned to their homes. Most of these will be back October 1, but this will be too late for the present assessment and they will lose their vote at the November election.

No assessors were arrested while correcting the list. Judge Gordon's agents have predicted trouble for every assessor who refused to accept the figures of the police canvass. The assessors did not use the police reports. Those of the Republican canvassers were not only accurate, but they made it necessary to strike off more names than Gordon wanted off. So the judge, through Director Potter, had the arrest orders rescinded. Two men were arrested tonight for interfering with assessors and this is the net result of the show of police strength at the polls, a force of 2,800 officers, regular and special, having the assessors under surveillance since Friday night.

Select Councilman M. C. Work, chairman of the councilmanic investigation committee, which is going to probe Mayor Weaver's official acts, returned today from his vacation. Chairman Work said his committee would organize this week and probably start its inquiry next week. Attorney A. S. L. Shields will be retained by the committee, possibly, also ex-District Attorney George S. Graham. Among the first witnesses to be summoned will be Mayor Weaver, Judge Gordon, John Mack and less conspicuous persons identified with the new Municipal regime. Sensations are promised. They must be produced or the "Lexow" will be a fiasco of lamentable proportions.

When Chief Bill of the filtration bureau, and Councilman Frank Caven were arrested, the advisers of the mayor intimated that Israel W. Durham and Senator James P. McNichol would also be prosecuted. The charge, it was said, would be "conspiracy to defraud the city." Later it was announced that, owing to the injury of District Attorney Bell, these arrests would be deferred until September 1. But they have not been made.

Durham and McNichol are in readiness for apprehension, but Judge Gordon appears satisfied with delay. If the assessors' reports result as Republican leaders predict, he may immediately make arrests in order to have a campaign issue.

It now looks as though the new county ticket of the Republican city committee and the committee of 21, would be: Ex-District Attorney P. F. Rothermel, for sheriff; Thomas Dugan, the present coroner, to succeed himself; Councilman William Harkness and Frank H. Massey, for county commissioners.

P. F. Rothermel served one terra as district attorney, but was defeated for re-election by John Weaver, who had the support of the Republican organization. Rothermel was supported by the Union party, now defunct.

MINISTRY AND LAW MEET TO TALK ABOUT GRAFT

Attorney Marron and Dr. McClenahan Reticent After Conference, but Action Is Promised Soon.

Attorney John Marron had a long conference yesterday afternoon with the Rev. Dr. J. D. McClenahan, chairman of the executive committee of the Allegheny Federation of Churches. The two met in Marron's office in the Frick building and when they separated neither would say what had engaged their attention for so long.

"We talked it all over and we agreed," was what Mr. Marron said.

"What did you agree upon?"

"Well, that is something we will tell you in a few days. Just now nothing can be made public."

Dr. McClenahan said:

"Mr. Marron and I simply had a plain understanding concerning the further prosecution of the graft investigation in Allegheny. The Federation of Churches is in this thing to the finish. We are in it to stay until we conquer vice and graft or until we are conquered. A meeting of the federation will be called within the next week and our action will make news. All the church people in the city are active workers now in our organization and the politicians will find that the federation is going to be a factor in municipal elections. We are going into the municipality fight to give Allegheny a good clean man for a chief executive. If the political parties cannot set up a man we can heartily indorse we can go outside the parties and choose a man to our liking."

EDUCATIONAL.

A BOY THAT FAILED

to make progress at a noted New England academy entered the Groff School recently with several having had similar experiences at other large schools. They were all put into Yale and other large colleges the following September without a condition, one year ahead of their former classmates, and their present standing at college is very high. Mr. Groff's experience with these boys is typical of the success he has had for 16 years.

THE GROFF SCHOOL,
228 West 72d St., New York,

now occupying the most handsome school quarters in New York, is ideal and exceptional as a boarding and day school.

No young and inexperienced teachers to experiment with students.

Absolutely individual attention, the number being strictly limited. No very young boys admitted in main school. Handsome study parlors, billiard room, electric elevator and full and free use of skating rink, bowling alleys, fencing hall, gymnasium, swimming pool, athletic field, etc.

Proper and judicious supervision of the daily life of all students of the school, but all foolish school discipline, military drill and consequent loss of time eliminated. Reopens September 18th.

THE MATINEE HORSES ARE READY FOR SOME SPEEDY TESTS

BRUNOTS TRACK READY FOR BELL

SPECIAL BOATS CHARTERED

Lovers of light harness sport in Pittsburgh and its environs are keen with anticipation over the inter-city meet of the Matinee club of Pittsburgh and Allegheny which begins today at the Brunots Island track. The entries are almost unwieldy, numbering over 125, as against 117 of the Chicago meet of last week.

The two-days' meet at Brunots will furnish the grandest of sport and attract to the track down the Ohio immense crowds who will come from neighboring points as well. The outlook is that seats in the grandstand will all be snapped up in advance, for society will turn out and ladies in number will grace the occasion with their presence, and the scene will take on something of the appearance of a Derby or Suburban handicap day.

The special train of seven cars bringing the turf stars from Chicago got in yesterday morning at 9:30 o'clock and were quickly transferred from McKees Rocks to the island. Of the number there were 31 horses of visiting horsemen. Another string was expected last night from Cleveland. H. K. Devereaux, president of the Gentlemen's Driving club of Cleveland, arrived last night and went to the Hotel Schenley. Mr. Devereaux is also president of the League of Amateur Driving Clubs and one of the most expert reinsmen in the country.

Arriving horsemen such as C. K. G. Billings, F. G. Jones, the Memphis street car magnate and president of the Gentlemen's Driving club of Memphis; Arnold Lawson of Boston, Secretary F. G. Hartwell of the Gentlemen's Driving club of Chicago, and R. Cudney of Chicago will get in this morning and will be met at the station and driven to the Hotel Schenley in automobiles.

Hospitality of the Pittsburgh horsemen is widely known. President Bennett and members of the Matinee club are busy arranging for the reception and entertainment of their guests. They will be taken after the races tomorrow night by special traction cars and automobiles to the Country club for the banquet. Those who attend the banquet will wear the colors of their respective clubs.

For the first day seven events, evenly balanced, are carded. Dr. Strong (2:09), S. A. Pickering's gold cup winner, will appear in a special event and will be sent against his wagon mark, made at Chicago, of 2:09. There was some talk yesterday of a specially arranged race between him and Major Delmar, 2:05¾, but anything definite will have to await the arrival of Mr. Billings. Mr. Pickering said he was perfectly willing, provided the race is made the best three out of five heats.

The absence of Dr. Strong from the free-for-all trot makes more of an open race of it. There will be brought together Prince of Orange, Robin C., Uncle Mac, Uncle William and Mary D. Uncle William is right on edge, working in 2:08¾, for the race. Robin C. is ready, and both will put up a battle for the ribbons every inch of the race with Mr. Billings' gold cup candidate Prince of Orange. It will be such a contest that they will all know that they have been to the races.

For the pacers the 2:05 pace is the piece de resistance. There will turn in it H. P. Haas' Surfrect, 2:06¼; E. P. Whitcomb's Terrace Queen, 2:06, and C. K. G. Billings' Angus Pointer, 2:04½ to a wagon. His race record is 2:04¾. Unquestionably a new pacing mark for Brunots will be set.

W. A. Avery's Chicago cup candidate, Lady May, 2:07¾, will be reserved for the free-for-all pace on Friday, when she will measure strides with Mr. Billings' Morning Star, race record 2:04¾ and wagon mark made at Chicago of 2:07¼, and J. G. Bennett's Frank Wilson, 2:06¼. Nearly everyone expects to see Mr. Avery's grand mare turn the tables on Morning Star, who beat her for the Chicago cup. Lady May, after winning the first heat, was badly interfered with in the second, which threw the race. Morning Star will be much admired, for he is a very handsome horse, with a long, sweeping tail.

Arnold Lawson, when he makes his appearance, will have the grandstand with him. He goes in the 2:21 trot with the Princess, in the 2:12 trot with the Barcless, and in the 2:17 trot with Milady o' Dreamwold. The latter is the name of Thomas W. Lawson's stock farm.

The Matinee club has made special preparations to handle the monster crowds that are expected. Boats will leave the foot of Wood street every half hour after 1 o'clock. Special lines of street cars will also leave the foot of Fifth avenue every five minutes after 1 o'clock.

The revised entries are:

2:21 trot—Russell G., ch. g., W. P. Murray, Cleveland; Johnnie on the Spot, b. g., H. Chisholm, Cleveland; Dr. Frank, b. g., W. C. Stephens, Cleveland; Prioress, b. m., A. Lawson, Boston; Blanche, b. m., J. D. Callery, Pittsburgh; Wilderness, b. m., H. S. Denny, Pittsburgh; Harland, b. g., R. H. Boggs, Pittsburgh; Tea Bell, b. m., J. R. FIGHT WILL TAKE PLACE.

Britt and Nelson Say They Will Be in the Ring Ready for Battle on Saturday.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 6.—The managers of Britt and Nelson after their late session last night, failed to reach an agreement regarding a referee. It is not anticipated that this unexpected hitch will cause a permanent deadlock in the fight preliminaries, though it is impossible to predict what settlement of the difficulty will be made, as Britt insists on Jeffries, and Nelson's manager strenuously objects to the choice of the retired champion. Both the contestants are continuing their training, and the demand for seats is as brisk as ever.

"There will be a fight," said Nelson, at his training quarters today. "I will fight Britt at Colma, Saturday, or will take any man for referee barring Billy Jacobs."

Jimmy Britt said: "I am not bothering myself a particle about the referee. That is out of my hands entirely. I am out here to fight, and will be ready to enter the ring Saturday. Jeffries will referee the fight, and there will be no purse split."

Manager Coffroth said: "The referee has been chosen, and the fight will take place at 1:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon."

ANGIOLA IS THE WINNER OF CHARTER OAK STAKE

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

HARTFORD, CONN., Sept. 6.—By winning a heat today, Angiola captured the classic Charter Oak trot at Charter Oak park before a big throng of spectators. Four heats were trotted yesterday, Angiola winning the last two. The heat which decided the race today was a good one until the distance pole was reached, when the western mare pulled away from Zephyr, her close rival. The clip was too much for the Geers horse, which took second money from Norman B. The purse was distributed as follows: Angiola $5,000; Zephyr $2,500; Norman B., $1,500, and Glenwood M., $1,000.

In the 2:30 trot today the Capital City event, Albert C. was in great form, winning after the first heat, which was taken by Miss In Law. Sister Collette secured third money. Delma Gregor was played heavily in the pools, but was distanced in the second heat.

Don Carr, the favorite in the 2:08 pace, won in three straight heats. In the second heat all the drivers were warned to score by Don Carr or else be fined $50. In the next attempt to score every driver was ahead of Don Carr, and the following were fined $50: Walker, Murphy, McGinty, Howard and De Ryder.

A heavy thunderstorm set in about 2:30 o'clock which drove everybody to cover. It lasted about half an hour and put the track in poor condition. Summaries:

YOUNG PLAYERS WILL GET TRIAL

Manager Clarke Will Take No Chances in Regular Contests, but Books Exhibition Games.

LEIFIELD WILL PITCH TODAY

Manager Clarke of the Pirates will not take any chances in trying out young players secured by the local team in regular games, so long as the race for the pennant is so close, and in order to get a line on the form of the new players, a number of exhibition games have been booked and all the youngsters will be given a fair trial.

After Saturday's game here the Pirates take to the road to be gone until the 21st, when the eastern clubs come west. During this time but six championship games are to be played and the extra time will be put in playing exhibition games and trying out the new players. The schedule of exhibition games is as follows: On September 3 the Pirates will play at Sparta, Ill., a town of less than 3,000 inhabitants and will be the guests of Dr. A. W. MacKenzie, a former Pittsburgher.

On September 14 Pittsburgh will play at Springfield, Ill., Charley Case, who helped Springfield to win the pennant in the Three-I league last year before signing with Pittsburgh, will pitch for the Pirates. Pitted against him will be Frank Oberlin, the star of the Springfield team of this year, whose release has been purchased by President Dreyfuss. Oberlin will join the Pittsburgh team after the game.

On September 15, 16 and 17 the Pirates will play at Cincinnati. On September 18 they are scheduled for Newark, O., where a large number of former Pittsburghers are employed in glass factories and other trades. Tuesday, September 19, will be spent at Youngstown, O., where the Pirates played so early last year in the absence of Manager Clarke and all the regular players. The Pirates will try to show Youngstown the difference this year. The final game of the exhibition series will be played at Braddock on September 20. On the following day Philadelphia will open at Exposition park.

The championship race will be resumed today, Cincinnati will arrive early this morning from Toledo for a three-game series. There is more or less feeling between the teams. The race between Seymour and Wagner for batting honors is likely to be a feature of the series, but Manager Clarke is not interested in it. He said last night: "Wagner is working entirely for the interest of the team and not for a batting average. He is doing everything to get on the bases, and his daring running after getting on is winning games for us. He may lose the title of champion batsman, but the title of champion game-winner must be conceded to him."

Manager Clarke announced last night that Lefty Leifield would make his début here today. It is seldom that Clarke will announce his selection in advance, but he had a reason for doing so this time. He received a letter yesterday from George B. Dovey of the St. Louis Car Company of St. Louis, a friend of President Dreyfuss, telling him that Mrs. Leifield, Lefty Leifield's wife, pitcher, is delighted to have her son with the Pittsburgh team and requested that she be given an opportunity to see him pitch at St. Louis next Sunday. Clarke wired last night that he would be glad to grant her request. Leifield will pitch today and again at St. Louis Sunday.

UNIONTOWN, Sept. 6.—(Special.)—The Waynesburg team, which is finishing out a part of its season here, defeated McKeesport today in an interesting game, 7 to 5. Sensational catches of foul balls were made by B. Montgomery, and the work of Groniger at short was also a feature. Yoedt pitched his third game in as many days and had the McKeesport team under complete control all through. Harry Wilhelm, late of Punxsutawney, joined the team and played great ball. Score:

CHARLEROI, PA., Sept. 6.—(Special.)—Charleroi won an uninteresting game today from Fayette City 5 to 1. Sharon Beats Butler.

BUTLER, Sept. 6.—(Special.)—Butler's errors and Sharon's hits came in a bunch in the eighth inning today, with the result that the visitors were made a present of the game. Stewart pitched splendid ball, allowing but seven hits, four of which came after the side should have been retired. Butler hit hard, but was unfortunate in getting runners across. Score:

UNION QUESTION TO BE SETTLED

The Pittsburgh Conference of Methodist Protestant Hears Report on Church Union.

RAISE SECRETARIES' SALARIES

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

NEW BRIGHTON, Pa., Sept. 6.—The question of how the Pittsburgh conference of the Methodist Protestant church will stand on the question of church union with the United Brethren and Congregationalist denominations, will probably be decided here tomorrow by the conference, which began today holding its 72d annual meeting here. Conference President C. F. Swift of Beaver Falls brought the matter before the conference in his report this morning. The report read in part:

"I am informed by the president of the general conference that the three denominations, Congregational, United Brethren and Methodist Protestant, which have been considering the question of union, are to hold a joint meeting of representatives at Dayton, O., in February, 1906. We therefore recommend that at this session of the conference such action be taken and instructions given as will indicate to our representative the desire of the Pittsburgh conference on the question."

The report of President Swift was referred to a special committee composed of the Rev. Dr. George S. Shepard of Washington, Pa., the Rev. J. F. Mimit of Waynesburg, the Rev. W. A. Curfman of New Cumberland, F. K. Brierly of New Brighton and S. C. Jolly of Beaver Falls. This committee is said to be divided upon the question of union. At the same time the Rev. Mr. Swift gave notice that he would, at 10:30 o'clock tomorrow morning, present resolutions regarding the matter of church union. The Rev. Mr. Swift is against the union. It is known that about half the delegates are against the union, and the vote on the question will be close in all probability.

The Rev. Dr. George Shaffer of Bellevue will represent this conference at the Dayton meeting, he being chosen last year. Dr. C. F. Swift of Beaver Falls was re-elected president. This is his second year. The Rev. E. C. Lane of Mt. Washington, Pittsburgh, was elected secretary; the Rev. C. M. Lippincott of New Cumberland, assistant secretary; the Rev. F. M. Gladden of Houtzdale, statistical secretary, and conference steward, the Rev. J. H. Shimp of Turtle Creek.

The stationary committee, which will make the appointments probably on Monday, was elected as follows: The Revs. C. F. Swift, George Shaffer, W. A. Curfman, and F. K. Brierly and Andrew Aird, Jr., of Sheridan. At 3 o'clock the Rev. F. P. Hummell of the South Side church, Pittsburgh, gave a lecture on practical religion. The salary of secretary was fixed at $40 and the assistant secretary at $35, which is an increase of $20 all told. A long discussion preceded the acceptance of the statistical report.

Four or five hundred books have been donated from time to time by aged ministers to start a conference library. These are at the book rooms in Pittsburgh, and the Rev. F. C. Viele of Castle Shannon was elected librarian. Tonight the usual communion service was conducted by the Rev. J. F. Dyer of Youngstown, O., and the Rev. C. A. Sturm of Connellsville.

DR. SALMON RESIGNS.

Accused Head of Animal Industry Bureau Leaves His Position in Agricultural Department.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—Dr. David E. Salmon, chief of the bureau of animal industry, department of agriculture, has tendered his resignation to take effect immediately upon the appointment of his successor.

Dr. Salmon was recently charged with holding stock in a printing company which furnished meat inspection tags for his department. It was also alleged independent packers were unable to get their meat inspected, preference being given the beef trust. An investigation exonerated him, but it is said President Roosevelt was not satisfied with the finding.

CHARLES MADDEN AND SON ARE KILLED BY A TRAIN

Union. Madden had been attending a family reunion at Three Springs. The only Charles Madden in the Pittsburgh directory lives in the rear of 142 West Carson street, and he is not married and attended no family reunion.

Miss Boss Denies Story.

Miss Anna L. Boss, about whom it was printed last week that she would be confined to a sanitarium in Mt. Clemens or Ann Arbor, Mich., denies that any such thing is contemplated. Miss Boss, who is living with friends in Swissvale, asserts the rumor had its foundation in the fact that for a week or two she was detained at the home of Sheriff Eckstein at Mt. Clemens some time ago at the request of her father. The latter, she says, was very ill and not altogether rational. Since then he has recovered and feels keenly the annoyance he has caused his daughter.

R. C. HALL LOSES RAILROAD SUITS

Judge Young Refuses to Compel Pennsylvania Company to Vacate Third Street.

R. B. COYLE TELLS OF OPTION

Two suits of Robert C. Hall against the Pennsylvania railroad to prevent the company from occupying Liberty avenue and Third street with its tracks, were dismissed by Judge Young yesterday. The court's findings of fact are voluminous, but in each case the conclusions of law are brief and very similar. The costs are placed on Hall in both cases, because the court says the plaintiff has no standing in equity to enforce the ordinances of the city.

Judge Young says the defendant must show in its act of incorporation or subsequent legislation authority to occupy the streets of Pittsburgh. Unless it can do this the city cannot grant the right to occupy the streets. The court says the acts of 1846, 1848, 1851 and 1867 are all to be read together as constituting the charter and defining the powers of the defendant company. Under this legislation the court says the defendant has the right to lay its tracks in Third street, but the city may impose reasonable rules and regulations on the defendant in its occupancy of the streets. By ordinance of September 2, 1889, the court says the defendant had consent of the city to lay its tracks in Third street. The provision of this ordinance, the court says, limiting the use of the tracks "to the carrying of freight and passengers to and from the exposition; and only during the time the exposition is open" is unreasonable and not binding upon the defendant company. If the plaintiff is injured the court says he has an adequate remedy at law. In the Liberty avenue case, the court says, the railroad occupies the street legally by virtue of the ordinance of June 15, 1848.

Duquesne Hotel Case on Trial.

The equity suit of D. F. Henry and wife against Sarah L. Black, the Union Realty Company and A. W. Mellon to compel a specific performance of a contract to convey the Duquesne hotel property to the Henrys was finished as court adjourned yesterday. Attorney James H. Reed argued the case for the defendants and ex-Gov. William A. Stone for the plaintiffs.

Reed B. Coyle testified at great length during the morning. He contended the property belonged to the Mellons and that his option and understanding with Mrs. Black was that his option was for the purpose of selling it to the Mellons. The Henrys claim that Coyle's option allowed him to sell it to anyone and that he sold it to them and received $5,000 hand money.

William A. Kerr filed a bill in equity against Robert J. and Rose C. Kerr, the latter being the plaintiff's divorced wife, asking the court to decree that an alimony claim is not a lien on his realty. The plaintiff agreed to sell the land to Robert Kerr, it is alleged, but Robert refused to accept a deed until the question of whether Rose C. Kerr's claim for alimony was a lien. Kerr, under the court's order, was to pay his divorced wife $720 a year, but he says he does not believe this is a lien against his property. Robert answers that he is willing to take the deed if the court says this is not a lien.

The county of Allegheny, borough of Millvale and the Allegheny and Butler Plank Road Company filed a bill in equity against the Pennsylvania Railroad Company to prevent the seizure of some of the Butler plank road at Millvale for improvements to the Pennsylvania railroad. The court made an order fixing September 11 for a hearing on the motion for a preliminary injunction. It being mutually agreed that meanwhile things are to remain in statu quo. It is alleged the railroad took possession of part of the road and a toll house was destroyed. The Butler road was recently purchased by the county and freed.

Woes of a Wife.

Attorney W. H. Mering, commissioner of the divorce suit of Elizabeth Wernz against Henry Wernz, filed his report. Mrs. Wernz testified before the commissioner that her husband began treating her very meanly six months after their marriage. She says he threatened her life, chased her and her children from home and that he drank continually.

Veronica Lehmeier filed a suit for divorce from Henry Lehmeier, alleging cruelty.

A charter was asked by "Subordinate Circle No. 1, The Homeless 26." Its purposes are social and beneficial.

In the suit of William W. McWilliams vs. the Jones & Laughlin Steel Company, growing out of the ore dust in Oakland, the defense was still calling witnesses when court adjourned yesterday. The defense avers there is no great abatement in the dust since the injunction was made by the court in a suit some time ago. Many witnesses were called who testified that it is now only one-tenth to one-fourth as bad as it was begore the first suit.

George F. Stock took an appeal to the supreme court in his suit against Allegheny City. Bridgewater borough appeals to the same court in its suit against the Beaver Valley Traction Company.

J. D. France and J. B. Ritchey filed a bill in equity against C. A. Daily, M. C. Egbert, T. L. Daily and H. E. Davis and the Schooling Natural Gas Company for an accounting of the proceeds of a gas well, in which the plaintiffs have an interest, it is alleged.

Preliminary Injunction Granted.

A preliminary injunction was granted in the suit of the Pennsylvania Water Company vs. the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, restraining the defendant from interfering with the construction of the plaintiff's main at Port Perry. A hearing is fixed for September 11.

Bishop Canevin, as trustee for St. Paul's Roman Catholic church, filed a supplemental affidavit of defense to the suit of Delinquent Tax Collector Mattern to collect taxes on the $1,000,000 mortgage given by H. C. Frick for the church property at Grant street and Fifth avenue. It is this, neither by the laws of church nor state was it a corporation sale and that the Rev. Canevin holds the mortgage solely by the court's appointment. The congregation is unincorporated and the mortgage is held, it is alleged, solely for charitable and religious purposes.

Timothy F. Sullivan, a clerk in the Hotel Griswold, filed a petition in bankruptcy. He gives his liabilities as $5,146 and his assets as $100.

Executions issued: A. H. France vs. G. W. Whitezell, $233; William Campbell et al., use, vs. Richard B. Surrell et al., $2,475; Thomas H. Lane et al. vs. R. Wallace & Bro., $896.

Among the true bills returned yesterday were: Embezzlement, Howard Mason; entering a building, G. H. Appelton, Frank Brown, William Bilgzard et al.; Samuel Turner, William Wood; burglary, John Boyce; robbery, William Jones; larceny, James Creegan, Harry Gilmore, Frank Haster, Joseph Lowman, John Morrison, Jacob Marint 6, Arthur Phillips, Joseph Perole, William Bergman, Radino Bruno, F. A. Blase, J. H. Bergman, Harry Brown, John Crowley, Bessie Cupps, Allie Wise, James Welsh, Wooster Young; keeping gambling house, Bert Baughman; attempted criminal assault, John Doe, A. C. Wooster; larceny by bailee, Annie Hurley; selling liquor illegally, George Edwards, Edward Sossman; aggravated assault and battery, John Braxton, Sam Carson, Richard Mackey, Samuel Turner, George Wood et al.

Sequoyah, Proposed Indian State.

MUSKOGEE, I. T., Sept. 6.—The constitutional convention of the Five Civilized Tribes tonight adopted a constitution section by section. The preamble, christening the new state Sequoyah, was adopted without a dissenting vote. The bill of rights is similar to that of most states admitted during the last 50 years, including a section prohibiting lotteries, prize fights and slavery.

FAMILY TRAGEDY IS BEING AIRED

MARSHALL GETS SIX MONTHS

An alleged murder and attempted suicide are being aired in criminal court in the trial of Mrs. Annie J. Mickle, who is charged with shooting her husband and afterward taking poison with intent to kill herself. Harry A. Mickle was a street car conductor and was found dead in his room at 700 Cedar avenue, Allegheny, with a bullet hole through the left side of his head. Mrs. Mickle was in the room, apparently suffering from the effects of poison she had taken. Mrs. Mickle was removed to a hospital and recovered in a short time. She is being defended by Attorneys J. L. Ritchey and William J. Jordan, who were appointed by the court without compensation.

After the woman recovered she at first claimed her husband had killed himself, and the fact that Mickle had the revolver clutched in his right hand seemed to bear out the statement. The police were not satisfied, however, and finally secured a confession, it is said, from Mrs. Mickle, in which she stated that Mickle had beat her and her life was in danger when she shot him and placed the revolver in his hand. She pleaded not guilty when arraigned yesterday.

About two hours were consumed in securing a jury, as follows: Thomas Campbell, W. S. Moore, S. D. Maxwell, J. J. Cummings, A. J. Puffinberg, David Gould, James McKinney, B. G. Follansbee, William R. Farmer, Joseph McKee, William Wilson and J. R. Mehaffey. Assistant District Attorney John S. Robb, Jr., represents the commonwealth.

Coroner Joseph G. Armstrong testified as to the condition of Mickle's body when it was brought to the morgue, and stated a will signed by Mrs. Mickle had been found in the room in which she disposed of her effects.

Dr. William H. Weber, who attended to the post-mortem examination, testified to the location of the wound, which he said was a little above the left ear, and had caused instant death. Dr. Weber said that from the location of the wound it would have been impossible for Mickle to have fired the shot into his head. Adjournment was taken until this morning at the conclusion of Dr. Weber's testimony.

L. H. Marshall, formerly employed as a detective by the Anti-Saloon league, was sentenced to the workhouse for six months. He had been convicted of conspiracy at the July term of court. The suit was brought by D. A. Malic, a saloonkeeper of 15 South Diamond street, Allegheny, an applicant at the last license court. Marshall appeared against him and testified he saw women enter and leave by a back door, drink beer there, carry it away in bottles, and that the place was frequented by street-walkers. Malic and his bartenders denied it at the time, and so convinced the jury when the case was tried. W. J. Brennen, for Marshall, made a motion for a new trial and arrest of judgment, but they were denied, and he then asked for leniency. Judge Evans, who sentenced Marshall, said he considered the plea when he gave him but six months.

Broker Gets Eight Months.

L. W. Wilson, a broker, was sentenced by Judge McClung to eight months in the workhouse on a charge of false pretense. Mrs. Francis V. Thompson of Turtle Creek said he represented himself as an agent of the Keystone Building and Loan association and collected $150 from her, when he was not so employed. Before being sentenced Wilson said he owed Mrs. Thompson but $75, and was ready to pay her once if she insisted he owed her the full amount, but the court said it was not a question of amount, as he admitted the transaction. Other charges against him were withdrawn, and he was sentenced only on one.

Charles Reed, aged 23, charged with stealing two pearl studs while employed as a bellboy at the Hotel Schenley last July, pleaded guilty and was sent 30 days to the workhouse. The proprietor, James Riley, asked for leniency for the man because his father is a hotel man.

W. J. Robinson pleaded guilty to passing four bad checks in all amounting to $287.75, and will be sentenced later. John Matusic also pleaded guilty in a suit brought against him by Annie Vernouch. The woman has a husband from whom she is divorced and has been living for some years with Matusic. He told the court he was the father of some of her children and that he means to marry her when she gets her divorce. He paid the costs and sentence was suspended.

To the Workhouse for a Day.

Andrew Bundo was sent to the workhouse for but one day, pleading guilty to stealing brass. He had been in jail 50 days.

Louis J. Marks, a jeweler of 222 Fifth avenue, was acquitted of the charge of receiving stolen goods. W. W. Pyles of Euclid avenue alleged he bought an diamond ring worth $60 from Charles Harris, a thief now in prison in Milwaukee, who stole it from Piper & Co. Mr. Kephart of 719 Webster avenue was found not guilty on a charge of misdemeanor. He was driving an automobile in Howe street last March when he ran into Dorothy Hamilton, a child. Some witnesses testified that he was going 15 miles an hour, but he contended he was going but three. He was required to pay the costs of the suit.

COMMANDER EVA BOOTH WILL INVADE KENTUCKY

Will Lead Salvation Army Hosts Through Feud and Moonshine Districts on Campaign.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 6.—Col. Holz of the Salvation Army announced this night upon his return from a visit to New York, that Commander Eva Booth would make a tour of the feud district in Kentucky, in company with other Salvation Army officials, next spring.

The visit will be similar to that of two years ago by Salvation Army soldiers which was in charge of Col. Holz. The coming trip is planned to cover more territory and to consume a longer period of time. Col. Holz desired to make the invasion the latter part of this month, but Miss Booth was too busy to do so.

Will Build New Church.

The committee on presbyterial missions of the Pittsburgh presbytery of the Presbyterian church has concluded the purchase of a plot of ground on Chislett street for the erection of the new Morningside Presbyterian church. The plot is near Bryan street, and is 109 by 170 feet. The sale of the old Morningside church property on Butler street was concluded some time ago, the property bringing $5,000. It is the intention to build an edifice costing about $8,000.

There was no special feature in the fever situation today, beyond the small number of cases reported and the fewer deaths.

VETERANS MARCH IN STREETS OF DENVER

Kansas Carries Off Honors in the Big Parade—Confederate Soldier Receives Cheers.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

DENVER, Sept. 6.—The main event of the Grand Army encampment, speaking from the viewpoint of the rank and file, was the grand parade which occurred today.

It took the parade three hours to pass the grandstand. Kansas carried off the honors for the largest representation, having nearly 2,500 men in line. The Colorado and Wyoming department came next with 1,500 men. Illinois, Pennsylvania, Iowa, Ohio and Missouri had large delegations.

One former confederate soldier in gray uniform rode in the parade waving the Stars and Stripes and bowing to the applauding multitude. Later he appeared marching arm and arm with an aged veteran of the union army.

The national encampment of the G. A. R. and the annual meeting of the Woman's Relief Corps will open tomorrow morning.

RETURN TO OLD PLAN.

Philippine Government Will Take Bids for Carrying Mails and Freight.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—The Philippine government has decided to discontinue the operation of the 17 coast guardships and turn the inter-island water traffic of the government over to commercial lines of steamers. To accomplish this purpose specifications have been prepared, and within a few days proposals will be invited both in the Philippines and this country for carrying the mails and government passengers and supplies over 21 routes in the islands.

This plan is practically a return to the method of transportation in vogue under Spanish rule in the islands. When the United States established civil government in the Philippines the 17 coast guardships were purchased and put into commission. Previous to this four commercial companies, owing lines of steamers, conducted the business, but since then the government ships, including the operation of several transports belonging to the quartermaster department of the army, have been carrying the mails and all of the government passenger and and freight traffic. The action is the result of complaints from private owners that they have been driven out of business by the government boats.

EX-JUDGE RODGERS IN WRECK.

Automobile Skies at a Farm Wagon, and Goes Through a Fence.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 6.—(Special.)—Judge and Mrs. Rodgers of Pittsburgh had a narrow escape today while coming up from Cape May in their automobile. The chauffeur, near Camden, attempted to pass a farm wagon, but the car ran into the fence. No one was injured and the car was able to proceed to this city. The man driving the farm wagon, however, was almost frightened to death.

As the car containing the judge and his wife was going very fast their escape from serious injury was most fortunate. Neither of them, however, was frightened and both retained light of the affair. They left tonight for Pittsburgh and the automobile will follow tomorrow.

SALE OF $35,000 IN PENN AVENUE

Charles Spandau Sells the Property at 1208 For $1,400 a Front Foot.

HILL CORNER CHANGES HANDS

Through the Real Estate Corporation the property at 1208 Penn avenue has been sold to a prominent local investor for $35,000. The former owner was Charles Spandau, the jeweler. The property has a frontage of 25 feet on the south side of the avenue, running back 100 feet to Spring alley, and is improved with a three-story building, the best in that square. The first floor is occupied as a storeroom and the upper floors as apartments. Considering the price paid, $1,400 a front foot, or $14 a square foot, and the fact that the property commands a rental of nearly $2,000 a year, the figure paid seems very reasonable. Last week the purchase of the lot at 1145 Penn avenue, in the next square, was closed at the rate of $1,750 a front foot, or $17.50 a square foot. Six or eight sales of property in Penn avenue, between Tenth and Fifteenth street, have been made since August 4, indicating that there is a considerable movement of business in this direction.

The Kretz buildings at the northeast corner of Kirkpatrick and Mahon streets, Fourteenth ward, changed hands yesterday, the reputed buyer being Abe Perelstine, and the price $32,500. The lot is 100 feet square and is almost at the intersection of Center avenue and Kirkpatrick street. It was formerly known as the Zicher lot, and Mr. Kretz bought it about a year ago. A good brick building occupied as a drug store stands on the corner and four seven-room houses face in Kirkpatrick street. On the upper side the property is bounded by Humber street, being directly across from the Centenary Methodist Episcopal church. The total rental is about $2,700 a year.

How Bellevue Property Is Selling.

J. A. Gibson has purchased from Samuel McWilliams three new brick houses on the north side of Bayne avenue, near Thomas avenue, Bellevue, for $21,500. The houses stand on lots 50x150 feet each and were recently completed, but have never been occupied. They are nine-room reception hall dwellings, with tile bathrooms and finished attic, and would rent in this locality for $60 a month each. In part payment Mr. Gibson tendered a frame house on 50x100 feet on the south side of Florence avenue, near School street, Avalon, valued at $6,000. The deal was made through J. A. Gibson & Co.

The same brokers sold for ex-Warden Edward S. Wright of the Western penitentiary, and executor of the estate of Hannah Straw, to Samuel Diffenderfer, 200x200 feet at the northwest corner of Lincoln and Straw avenues, Bellevue, for $15,000. The plot extends through to Sumner street. Mr. Diffenderfer will at once start the erection of six eight-room brick houses on the plot, to cost $8,000 each.

J. A. Gibson & Co. have also made the following sales on the North Side this week: For J. A. Gibson to A. L. Schreiber, a three-story brick house on 50x150 feet in Bayne avenue, Bellevue, for $7,500; for Miss Nancy Cooper of Allegheny to R. C. Boak of Enslee, Ala., two lots, 40x110 feet, in Jackson street, near Orchard, Bellevue, for $1,400; for H. A. McKee of Ben Avon to F. H. Pole, 60x120 feet on the north side of Laurel street, Bellevue, for $1,670; for A. L. Johnston to H. E. Graham, 40x120 feet on the west side of Sprague avenue, near Orchard avenue, Bellevue, for $1,400; for R. C. Boak to J. W. Williams of Allegheny, 40x110 feet in Sprague avenue, Bellevue, for $1,450; for A. T. Graham to F. J. Underwood, 32x90 feet on the south side of Oregon street, Bellevue, for $700.

Three Large Farm Sales.

Through the office of Vet L. Brown & Co. three large farm sales have just been made. For James DeWitt they sold to E. H. Watson of this city a fruit farm of 427 acres in Garrett county, Maryland, for $15,000. The property is all underlaid with coal, which was included in the purchase, and has on it an apple orchard of 550 trees, besides a modern residence and good farm buildings. It was tendered in part payment for five houses in Jeannette, which were valued at $21,000, and rent for $1,200 a year.

For W. J. Patterson the same firm sold to H. M. Bryer of New Brighton 300 acres of land in Paine township, Crawford county, Pennsylvania, for $15,000. The stock and farm implements are included in the sale. In part payment there was tendered a farm of 190 acres in Beaver township, Beaver county, valued at $9,000, and a $5,000 business property in Third avenue, New Brighton.

They also sold for John Pomby to a Pittsburgh investor a farm of 88 acres situated three miles west of Beaver, for $10,000. The farm has an abundance of fruit on it and the buildings will be remodeled to make place for a desirable summer home for the owner. The same brokers sold for A. C. Davins to J. W. Allison of Cleveland a $10,000 residence in Edgewood.

Fine Houses for Wilkins Place.

The Commonwealth Real Estate Company has just awarded the contract to the Harris & Adams Company for the erection of 14 brick houses in Wilkins place, just over the Wilkinsburg line. Seven of these will be center hall and seven reception hall dwellings and all will be provided with tile bath rooms and finished in hardwood below. The houses will stand on 42-foot lots facing in Sanders and La Claire streets and will cost from $8,000 to $10,000 each for the center hall and from $5,000 to $6,000 each for the reception hall houses. No suburb around Pittsburgh has enjoyed a more deserving popularity the last two years and the public improvements assured this year for the district should make these houses good sellers in the early spring.

Through W. S. Haynes, president of the Diamond Real Estate Company, Mrs. Elizabeth Flowers has let the contract to W. H. Jack, Incorporated, for building 10 houses and a store room in Flowers avenue, two blocks from Second avenue. The houses will be brick veneered and will cost about $4,500 each. They will be rented for $15 each per month and the store room for $20 a month.

The Aronson Realty Company has closed the sale of the property at 103 Market street, formerly owned by Jacob Tannenbaum and bought by Daniel H. Rubenstein, the wholesale leaf tobacco merchant. The lot is 17x72 feet with a three-story brick building on it, making the rate of sale $1,839 a front foot.

Former Official Was the Broker.

The sale of the holdings of the North American Savings Company at Fourth avenue and Market street to Frank McCann for $325,000, which was made by W. P. Fraser last fall before his leaving the North American, has just become public. The deal includes the Burr property, 26.2x72 feet, and the Shinn lot, 16x71 feet, both facing in Market street. The North American paid $157,500 for the properties, getting one in 1903 and the other in 1904.

Among the Clubs.

Mammoth Hospital Benefit.

So extensive are the preparations being made for the mammoth entertainment which will be conducted at the Pittsburgh Country club in October for the benefit of the Homeopathic hospital that it may be conducted two afternoons and evenings, instead of one, as at first decided. The entertainment, which will take somewhat the form of a country fair, will be given as near the middle of October as possible, the exact date not yet having been decided upon.

The meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of the Homeopathic hospital was held yesterday morning, Mrs. William Thaw, the president, coming down from Cresson to attend the meeting. A general committee of arrangements for the benefit, composed of Mrs. Thaw, Mrs. J. J. Vandergrift, Mrs. S. Jarvis Adams, Mrs. George H. Anderson and Mrs. George L. McCoy was appointed. Many other committees will have in charge the details of the affair.

Among the special features will be the flower dance, in which almost 75 children and young people from Sewickley and wealthy families of the East End and Allegheny will appear. A fine concert will be given; there will be a band to play almost continually and an evening dinner will be served in the general dining-room of the club house especially for the benefit of the business men, who will thus be able to join the members of their families at the entertainment early in the evening. There will also be an orange grove and a lily pond, where handsome prizes may be drawn, ponies and donkeys and carts for the children's use, a Punch and Judy show and palmistry. In addition will be many of the characteristic features of the country fair, and new ways of displaying the fancy work and commonsense articles which comprise the bazar.

The committees for the entertainment have not yet been completed and a special meeting of the society will be held September 18, when it is expected that they will be ready and most of the preliminary arrangements made. Rehearsals will be held in a few weeks for the flower dance, or as soon as society has returned to the city. Arrangements are now being made for automobiles, carriages and other conveyances to be at Forbes street and the Beechwood boulevard, opposite the Homewood cemetery, to carry all visitors from the street cars to the entertainment at the club house.

Elect Delegate to Federation.

At a special meeting of the Women's Press club yesterday afternoon in the Hotel Lincoln Mrs. William F. Abel was elected a delegate to the annual meeting of the State Federation of Pennsylvania Women in Cambridge Springs, from October 17 to 20. Miss Blanche Craighead will be the alternate. The club accepted the invitation of the Press club and its members will accompany the women in attendance at the Pennsylvania State Editorial association the last week in September on an automobile tour of the boulevards and parks.

After the business meeting was over Mrs. Christine Walton Dunlap, librarian of the League of American Pen Women, Washington, D. C., was introduced. Mrs. Dunlap is spending a couple of weeks in Pittsburgh as the guest of Mrs. Andrew Easton of Allegheny. The other members of the league in Pittsburgh have been invited to meet Mrs. Dunlap at a luncheon which Mrs. William F. Abel will give tomorrow. The former president of the Women's Press club, Miss Sarah G. Harbaugh, has been and is still very ill in the Allegheny General hospital, Stockton avenue, Allegheny.

Preparing for Annual Reception.

The board of managers of the Home for Aged Protestant Women at Wilkinsburg, at its monthly meeting yesterday, decided to hold its annual reception as usual on the last Thursday in September, which will be September 28. The hours will be from 2 o'clock until 5. The officers of the board, including Mrs. Samuel McNees, president; Mrs. Thomas Mellon, vice president; Mrs. Harry W. Bickel, secretary, and Miss Mary L. Jackson, treasurer, will receive. Miss Jackson will also be the chairman of the committee on refreshments. Mrs. Edwin Stowe, chairman of the ticket committee, and Mrs. James Scott, chairman of the committee on ladies' table, are obtaining the handiwork of the residents in the home, the assisting committee including Mrs. Thomas McConnell, Mrs. Samuel Fisher, Mrs. Heberton Negley, Mrs. Robert Brown, Mrs. Stephen McCandless and Mrs. S. M. Bigelow. The addition to the home which is now being erected will not be finished at that time, but the managers thought it best to observe the usual date rather than wait until later in fall, when the whirl of social affairs will be on.

In Need of Clothing.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Homeopathic hospital, through its secretary, Mrs. George L. McCoy, asks for donations of clothing, both underclothing and outside suits. Every bed in the hospital is occupied, 294 patients being cared for now. During August 325 were admitted and scarcely ever in its history has the hospital been so crowded. Many of the patients have been injured in accidents in mines and in the mills, and their clothing is so ruined that it must be burned. The society then provides a new outfit. Its stores have been drawn upon during the last month to such an extent that it is now in need of donations. It also asks for old muslin and linen and suggests that it can even make use of partly worn carpets which may be discarded in the renovating of homes of wealth for the coming season.

Meeting of Baths Committee.

The public baths committee of the permanent city committee will hold a meeting tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock in the Civic club rooms, Penn avenue. The meeting of the board of managers of the Soho public baths will be held later in the afternoon.

AT THE THEATERS.

The Belasco Opens Monday Evening. Attractions at the Other Playhouses.

The opening of the Belasco theater will serve to introduce to this city an organization which is expected to create a considerable stir in New York this season. This is Margaret Anglin and her company in her new play, "Zira," which is expected to occupy the Princess theater in New York for the greater part of the present year, if not for the entire season. Miss Anglin has made great strides professionally during the past two years, and her selection by the management of the Princess theater as the most available star to head the company at that house gives clear indication of her value and her professional standing. The sale of seats, which begins this morning, promises to be unusually heavy, as the number of applications by mail is large. The management announces, however, that these mail orders will not be filled until those in line have been served. The box office will open promptly at 9 o'clock and will remain open during the present week until 10 at night.

George M. Cohan, the Yankee Doodle comedian, who comes to the Nixon next week, has laid the scenes of the first two acts of "Little Johnny Jones" in London and the third in San Francisco. The first act will present an exterior view of the Hotel Cecil in the English metropolis; the second, the pier at Southampton with the steamer Hurrah ready to sail for America, and the third, Chinatown in 'Frisco. All of these scenes have been painted by the well-known artist, John Young, and are said to be fine examples of the scenic artist's work.

Although Israel Zangwill has written many lasting successes, it is pretty generally conceded that "The Serio-Comic Governess," which comes to the Alvin next Monday night, is one of the best things he has ever given us. The dramatic critics have been unusually kind in reviewing the play and, as one aptly put it, "The play is a jolly, wholesome, musical pot-pourri from the beginning to the final curtain." Nellie Beaumont and Henry V. Donnelly, who create the principal roles, are supported by a strong company, including a beauty chorus and a pony ballet.

The character of Willie Live, as portrayed by that clever and jovial comedian, Harry Clay Blaney, is doubtless the most widely known in nowadays popular price theatricals. Notwithstanding the fact that Mr. Blaney has secured a new play in "The Boy Behind the Gun," written expressly for him by Charles E. Blaney, the well-known character of Willie Live, not to belie its name, will continue on in the new piece, passing through many more startling adventures and hair-raising incidents.

Commencing with a Monday matinee, September 11, the Empire theater will present "Wedded and Parted." Honorable, loving, criminal, comic, unaudacious and mirthful characters, drawn from actual city life, are kept working overtime in four acts and 11 scenes of intermingled credulity, conspiracy, fraud, force, passion, sorrow, suffering, tears, shadow and sunshine.

Harry Bryant's famous extravaganza company will be the attraction at the Gayety theater next week, and one of the best bills of high-class entertainment yet offered by the management of this popular theater by the bridge is promised. Included among the clever artists who have helped to make the Bryant burlesquers famous, are a number of handsome young women, each well fitted for the part she plays. The musical numbers are said to be unusually tuneful and catchy, while the costumes and scenery have been referred to by critics in other cities as being most elaborate.

One of the most popular shows that has visited this city in years is the famous Reilly & Woods big show. This attraction is always one of the leaders, and when the name of Pat Reilly is at the head of a show it is a good omen. The celebrated Wood family, who have not appeared in this country for the past 10 years, will again be seen in the company.

Luna park will have one of the finest bands in the country to entertain its patrons next week. In the famous Kilties band from Toronto, Canada, comprising over 60 solo musicians. In addition to their band concerts, the Kilties, attired in Scotch costume, introduce a number of singing and dancing specialties. Another feature at Luna park next week will be a grand cakewalk, participated in by 12 couples of professional cakewalkers, secured in New York.

HAS LONG APPRENTICESHIP.

Michigan Man Is Expert Electrician After Twenty-eight Years in the Penitentiary.

JACKSON, MICH., Sept. 6.—"I came here an ignorant man; I leave an expert electrical engineer," said "Lifer" George Hardy, as he walked out of the Michigan state prison here today, on a parole, after spending 28 years behind the bars for murder.

Hardy, who is now 50 years of age, has practically had charge of the prison engines for a number of years, and would have stepped into a $2,000 a year position with an engineering firm in St. Louis, Mo., if he had received a pardon instead of a parole, which necessitates his remaining within the state.

TOOL TRUST BUYS GREAT CANADIAN MACHINE PLANT

Will Offset Discriminating Duties Imposed on American Made Goods.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—The Niles-Bement-Pond Company, the big machine tool trust, which operates large plants in the middle west, is about to enter the Canadian manufacturing field.

Arrangements have been consummated for the acquisition of the business of the John Bertram & Sons Company, Limited, of Port Dundas, Ontario, the largest builders of labor-saving machinery in the Dominion. The Bertram plant will be doubled in capacity. Work will begin immediately. About $300,000 will be spent in improvements, etc.

One of the principal reasons which has led the Niles-Bement-Pond people to negotiate the deal is understood to be so that they may be enabled to compete more successfully for the trade of such foreign countries as maintain discriminating duties against the products of the United States.

Russia, for instance, at present inflicts an import penalty of nearly 40 per cent more on various kinds of United States machinery than on the manufactures of any other foreign country.

MR. PICKERING'S THEORY.

Thinks Moon Was Part of the Earth, and When It Seceded the Pacific Ocean Was Formed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 6.—Prof. W. H. Pickering of Harvard, the astronomer, is here on route home from a visit to the Hawaiian islands. He makes the interesting statement that although he had never seen the volcanoes of the Hawaiian islands previous to his recent trip there, he recognized in them old familiar friends. He says he met their ancestors from afar, as it were, through a telescope, and that they are similar to those of the moon—that is, those of the engulfment variety.

While in Honolulu Prof. Pickering delivered a lecture, in which he advanced the theory that the moon was originally a part of the earth and was thrown off and that the Hawaiian islands were about in the center of this lunar genesis. The space that was left when the moon material was thrown off was the Pacific ocean. The large volcanoes of Mauna Loa and Kilauea, on the island of Hawaii, and Haleakala on Maui were, Prof. Pickering stated, in many ways exactly like those he had observed through a telescope on the moon.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY ASKS COURT TO STOP AN INQUEST

Subject Was His Wife, Who Had Been Shot to Death—Said Proceedings Would Do Him Harm.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

APPLETON, WIS., Sept. 6.—Judge Goodland of the circuit court today dissolved the injunction, issued by Judge Griffith at Crandon, on the affidavit of J. A. Walsh, to restrain the coroner's jury from conducting the inquest on the body of Mrs. Walsh, who was shot and fatally wounded on the night of August 22.

Mr. Walsh is district attorney and his wife was prominent in the social life of Crandon, being president of the Women's club of that place.

Mr. Walsh, in his affidavit, claimed to have knowledge that a verdict would be returned which would work great harm and damage to him and that the coroner's jury as a body and the jurymen individually, had discussed the testimony in a manner prejudicial to him. He asked that the inquest be adjourned until September 19.

ROCKEFELLER GIFT HURT.

Still the American Board of Foreign Missions Had a Most Prosperous Year.

BOSTON, Sept. 6.—The American board of commissioners for foreign missions has completed its accounts for its business year, and in anticipation of its 96th annual meeting, which will be held at Seattle, Wash., September 14-18, today issued the following financial statement: "The total receipts for the year amount to $812,148, the greatest sum the board has ever received in one year."

While the controversy over the acceptance of the gift from John D. Rockefeller has probably affected the receipts of the board in some measure, the interest of the pastors and church members in the work of the board is said to be on the increase, and the officers look forward to the next year with confidence.

The brothers parted in New York city in 1852, William going to New Orleans, thence to Cincinnati and Fort Wayne, where he finally settled permanently, and Henry, in 1855, coming to Warwick, and thence to this city, now his home. The return was a gala day for the two men. Neither recognized the other. A curious coincidence also was in that there was a difference of only half a pound in weight and half an inch in height between them.

NEW YORK STOCKS CLOSED LOWER ALL AROUND

Amalgamated Copper, U. S. Steel Preferred and Canadian Pacific Led the Decline—Tonopah Extension Doubles Its Dividend Rate.

By JOHN O. BAGLIN, Financial Editor.

The course of the New York stock market yesterday demonstrated its professional character. Without any news indicating any change in the business situation, a general reaction occurred in the stock market, and prices closed at or near the lowest prices of the day. Trading was active, the sales for the first two hours footing up 500,000 shares and for the day approximately 1,200,000 shares. The principal net losses, comparing yesterday's closing prices with those of the day before, were as follows:

	Decline.
Amalgamated Copper	2⅜
American Smelting	2⅞
United States Steel	1½
United States Steel preferred	2⅜
Tennessee Coal & Iron	2¼
Colorado Fuel & Iron	1⅜
American Locomotive	2⅜
Union Pacific	2½
Southern Pacific	2
St. Paul	2⅜
Canadian Pacific	3½
Atchison	1½
Delaware & Hudson	5½
Reading	2¼
Pennsylvania	1⅜
Baltimore & Ohio	1¼
Erie	2
Missouri Pacific	2
Louisville & Nashville	2
Illinois Central	2⅝
Southern Railway	¾
Northern Pacific	2¾
Northwestern	3½
Metropolitan Street Railway	2½
Brooklyn Rapid Transit	2

The foregoing does not cover the extreme loss of the day, there having been a slight recovery in the closing minutes of the session, but the tone of the market at the close was heavy.

At the opening the lower range of quotations received from London, and the break of 1½ per cent in Canadian Pacific, suggested that the advance of Tuesday had been the result of manipulation. The heavy trading in Reading, and the sharp advance in that stock, for a time concealed the liquidation in progress in the remainder of the list. Foreigners were sellers, and foreign government bonds, as well as the Japanese issues on the New York exchange, were all lower. London advices stated that there was some uneasiness there over the Moroccan situation, but this could hardly account for the liquidation here, which became more active as the day wore along.

The announcement of a reduction of ¼c a pound in the price of copper seemed to confirm traders in the bearish attitude assumed, and the weakness in Amalgamated Copper was a factor in the general reaction which ensued. The heavy selling in United States Steel preferred and the sharp decline from 104 to 101¾, was unexplained. The western clique, which has been so prominent in the bull movement, was credited with heavy sales throughout the active list, the total amount of pool stocks being estimated at 150,000 shares.

It was noted on Tuesday that there was no appreciable increase in outside commission business on the advance, and it is inferred that traders attacked the list. Finding it vulnerable they pressed their advantage, with the result of bringing about a general reaction.

Call loan rates remained easy at 2@2½ per cent. Cotton did not display any rallying power, but wheat closed higher.

Nearly a third of the total dealings on the local exchange was in Tonopah Extension, which advanced to and closed at $5.90. The rise was due to the declaration of a quarterly dividend of 10 per cent, which is double the initial rate paid in July. Lustre Mining was unchanged at 37½. United States Steel common was active, but closed lower in sympathy with New York. Crucible Steel common was entirely neglected and only 55 shares of the preferred changed hands at 64½@64¾. National Fire Proofing preferred declined to 26½ and recovered to 27. Pittsburgh Coal preferred lost a small fraction, selling at 54⅞. American Sewer Pipe was active, but sold at the uniform price of 33¾. There were no transactions in any of the Westinghouse issues and prices closed nominally unchanged. American Window Glass preferred closed ⅛ lower at 40½. Pittsburgh & Allegheny Telephone 5s declined a fraction to 82¾. The only change in the banking group was an advance of ½ in Merchants Savings and Trust, which sold at 55½.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

While the rates for call loans in the New York market yesterday were not appreciably higher, there was a firmer tendency to the time loan market, and it was this tendency which had its effect upon the stock market. There was no refusal of money facilities on the part of lenders and no actual necessity for the closing out of holdings of stocks. There is a very general sentiment besides that severe stringency in money is not what is to be feared. But no doubt is left that money rates are working closer and will continue to do so. It is deemed extremely improbable that prices of stocks should continue to advance while money rates are rising and loans being called in to some extent. With the prices of stocks admittedly high, holders are loth to see values recede from under their holdings, however great their confidence may be in the intrinsic worth of their properties. This furnishes the substantial reason for the sagging tendency of the market. There are, of course, the more transitory causes which apply to lightly margined speculative holdings and which appeal to the motive of the alert trading element, which seeks its advantage from the immediate movement of prices rather than from any innate value in the stocks which they deal in.

The interior demand for funds shows its normal progress and Chicago reported a further outflow of funds to the agricultural regions. A telegraphic transfer of $200,000 to St. Louis through the New York Sub-treasury was another symptom. The sub-treasury operations in themselves are making increasing demand on banking resources, owing partly to the growth in customs payments caused by the expanding imports. The New York trust companies had the placing of time loans practically to themselves yesterday, and rates in that department of the money market advanced appreciably. On the side of foreign exchange, from which relief would naturally be looked for, the prospect was clouded by reports of a probable early advance in the minimum discount rate of the Bank of England and the Imperial Bank of Germany, although exchange rates fell under offerings of bankers' bills yesterday. Paris also continues to accumulate gold. It is concluded that the avoidance of an indemnity payment by Russia does not preclude the intention of floating a large Russian loan for which European centers are preparing. While no Japanese issue is expected immediately, it is known that Japanese funds in New York are being remitted to London, where they figure in the Bank of England as reserve against note issues by the Bank of Japan, which are expanding. It is expected that the final installment of the subscriptions on the second series of Japanese 4½ per cent bonds may be also remitted to London after their payment, which is due on October 16, and which calls for some $20,000,000.

The regular semi-annual dividend of 1¼ per cent on Bessemer Railroad common will be paid October 1 to stock of record September 15.

In the local curb market there were sales of Golden Anchor at 9⅝ and of North Butte at 28½. The latter was an active feature in the Boston market, and advanced to 40¾, the highest ever quoted, but later reacted with the remainder of the market, and closed at 38 bid, 38½ asked.

Trade Dollar Mining was offered in the local curb market at $1.53. Oriental and Mashats was quoted at 55c bid, 60c asked.

The directors of the Tonopah Extension Mining Company yesterday declared a quarterly dividend of 10 per cent, payable October 2 to stock of record September 18. The initial dividend, paid in July was 5 per cent, and the advance in the stock the past few days was in anticipation of a doubling of the rate.

There were no transactions in Crucible Steel common on the local exchange yesterday, the stock closing at 12⅝ bid, 12¾ asked. Only 55 shares of the preferred changed hands, but it closed a fraction lower at 64¼.

Independent Brewing preferred closed a shade lower at 40¾ on the sale of 190 shares. Pittsburgh Brewing was ¼ higher at 25⅜. There were no sales of the bonds of either company.

Morris, Brown & Co. sold 1,000 shares Tonopah Extension on the advance. Sproul & Co. and R. C. Hall each bought 500 shares.

American Window Glass preferred sold at 40½, a decline of ⅛. Window Glass Machine common was quoted at 19 bid, 12½ asked, and the preferred was offered at 55.

The only transaction in the natural gas group was 10 shares Ohio Fuel Supply at 43½, a slight advance.

The information was received in Pittsburgh yesterday that the board of aldermen of Mt. Vernon had voted unanimously in favor of granting the application of the New York, Westchester & Boston railroad for perpetual franchises to cross over and under the streets of the city. The franchises were subsequently signed and delivered to the officers of the company. Pittsburgh capital is interested in this enterprise, which has been delayed by the efforts of a rival road, but which will now be carried to completion.

Mr. Lawson seized the "psychological moment" to fire another telegram into Wall street at the close of the market yesterday. An old-time Pittsburgh trader who takes an interest in the Boston speculator's tactics, remarked: "If they were so disposed the interests which Lawson is supposed to be fighting are powerful enough to destroy him in the market. Why do they not exercise their power and eliminate him from the speculative situation? But I don't know, but I would not surprise me if these same bull interests were using Lawson to help them unload stocks."

The official price of copper was reduced ¼c yesterday, making a total decline of ⅝c from the recent top price. The New York Journal of Commerce, a reliable trade authority, estimates the surplus of copper at the present time at 46,391 tons and says: "From now on the tendency will be in favor of consumers."

The Insurance World says: "Robert C. Hall, the prominent stock broker of this city, has recently increased his line of life insurance, by the addition of a policy for $450,000 issued by the Mutual Life of New York, making the total life insurance carried by him aggregate $1,-062,500. The $612,000 application was secured by C. A. McPeely, general agent of the Massachusetts Mutual Life."

In the late dealings the greatest pressure was in Union Pacific where it was said a large loan was liquidated owing to the inability of the borrowers to put up additional margin. When the weakness developed liquidation appeared in Reading, the early advance being completely wiped out and a loss of 2¼ per cent being scored at the close.

The gross earnings of Missouri Pacific for the last week in August decreased $52,000.

The following gross earnings were reported for the month of August: Southern Railway, $87,409 increase; Texas & Pacific, $100,728 decrease; Wabash, $225,983 decrease; Colorado & Southern, $67,824 increase; Chicago Great Western, $64,428 increase.

United States 2s advanced ¼, the 3s and old 4s ⅛ and the new 4s ½ per cent on call in New York yesterday.

The usual monthly report of the secretary of the treasury as to the market prices and investment value of the outstanding government securities shows the average market price of consols of 1930 (2s) 104.4213, and the average investment value 1.779, and of loan of 1908 (3s) the average market price 103.6553 and the average investment value 1.761.

The fire loss of the United States and Canada during the month of August, as compiled from the daily record of the Journal of Commerce and Commercial Bulletin, aggregated $13,435,800 as compared with $9,715,300 in August last year, and $8,423,350 in August, 1903. The total loss for the first eight months of the current year was $117,700,750. There were 211 fires during the month of August, where the loss exceeded $10,000 or more. A noticeable feature of the fire waste of the past month was the numerous fires due to lightning and in some instances these caused heavy losses.

At a special meeting of the American Steel Foundries Company held in Jersey City an issue of $5,000,000 bonds for working capital and financial rehabilitation was unanimously authorized. The stockholders passed a resolution complimenting ex-Judge Gary, chairman of the stockholders' financial committee, for his success in working out a plan of relief.

There is reason to expect that the operating expenses of the Pennsylvania on its eastern lines will be less prominent in the monthly reports for the rest of this year than heretofore. On the lines east of Pittsburgh the gross earnings for seven months have increased $7,400,000, while the expenses have risen from $47,900,000 in 1904 to $52,700,000 in this year. The company is putting the finishing touches on improvements which have cost in the last few years approximately $70,000,000, and an annual proportion has been appropriated from earnings. The requirements will be less from this time on.

STIFFER PRICES ARE BEING ASKED

U. S. STEEL'S DEAL NOT MADE

Throughout the iron and steel market there is an urgent demand which is causing stiffer prices in some cases where the quotations have been subject to change, the payment of premiums in others and agreed advances in still others.

In the pig iron market the furnace operators insist that $15, valley furnaces, is the best that can be done for Bessemer iron. There have been sales of small lots on this basis recently. If the United States Steel Corporation has done anything more than make a temporary arrangement to cover its needs to September 15 the fact has not been allowed to become public. The conclusion of an important deal of large size may be announced at any time.

As told in The Gazette recently, the manufacturers of structural steel have advanced prices $2 per ton. There was a rumor that the plate manufacturers had made a similar advance, but this is not authenticated. One steel plate concern, at least, is still selling on the basis of $1 60 the 100 pounds, the old rate.

The demand for merchant pipe is heavy. The market there is no longer based on the old card rates, these having been discontinued and prices made to suit conditions. At that the prices are said to be profitable enough to be satisfactory to the manufacturers.

The structural mills continue to take on large orders, caused by the spurt in construction which came after the first half of the year. These mills are already figuring on 1906 deliveries.

The amount of new street railway construction now in progress has caused a larger demand than ever known before for rails for such work. The orders for rails for the steam railroads are likewise heavy.

The Hardware Market.

The hardware business continues to move along in very good shape, orders improving and showing a very nice condition of affairs in the various districts that send business to Pittsburgh. Traveling men and customers seem to vie with each other in sending in business, mail orders direct from the trade showing a very satisfactory state of affairs. The demand for goods covers season lines and general lines in builders' hardware, housefurnishing goods, nails and wire and general hardware. A fair business also continues in window glass. Stocks are getting very slim on this line and sizes are difficult to get. Prices continue firm, there being no recent changes noted. The Bindley Hardware Company furnishes the following quotations:

Columbia pocket knives, discount 35 per cent; Albion hatchets, discount 40 and 10 per cent; Bindley cane shafts, $8 50 the dozen; Great Western files, discount 70 and 10 per cent; sheet iron, base $26 00, $2 55 the 100 pounds; galvanized sheet iron, discount 70 and 10 per cent; sash weights, the ton, $27 00; window glass, first and second brackets, 8 single, 90 per cent off list October 1, 1904; all other sizes, single and double, 88 per cent off list October 1, 1904.

WEEK'S SALES OF STEEL RAILS ARE ENORMOUS

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CLEVELAND, Sept. 6.—The Iron Trade Review tomorrow will say:

Sales of rails since the price of $28 for 1906 delivery was announced last week have been tremendous, breaking all records and furnishing substantial evidence of very great prosperity in the iron business, present and prospective. It is estimated that the orders for rails for 1906 placed within a week will amount to 650,000 tons, and orders for several hundred thousand tons are pending. Although the United States Steel Corporation has booked very large orders, it has not alone enjoyed the unexpectedly heavy business from the railroads. The Colorado Fuel and Iron Company reports its entire rail output sold for the year 1906, and the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad Company, the Lackawanna Steel Company and other interests are well supplied with orders.

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—(Special.)—The Iron Age to tomorrow will say:

The feature of the markets during the past week has been the heavy buying of steel rails for 1906, notably on the part of the western lines. It is estimated that the total sales foot up to fully 250,000 tons. Among the large orders are 70,000 tons for the Chicago & Northwestern; 55,000 tons for the St. Paul, and 50,000 tons for the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy. In the south the Atlantic Coast Line has taken 15,000 tons, while the Tidewater railway has ordered between 8,000 and 10,000 tons, and the Reading road 15,000 tons. It is understood that during the next two weeks the requirements of the Pennsylvania and the New York Central roads will be brought out.

Further heavy equipment orders have been placed, the Pennsylvania leading with over 10,000 steel cars. Among the orders to be placed are 1,000 steel cars for the Lake Shore & Eastern, controlled by the Steel Corporation.

The activity in nearly all lines of finished material is evidenced by the fact that the orders booked by the United States Steel Corporation for August make that the record month. The pressure which caused the advance in the price of structural material from 1.60 cents to 1.70 cents by 1.70 cents last week is expected to lead to a like advance in the price of plates at an early date. Angle bars have been put up to 1.50 cents. Pittsburgh, and some makers of iron bars are holding out for higher figures.

Turpentine and Rosin.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Sept. 6.—Spirits turpentine, quiet, 61½c. Rosin firm, $3 17½ bid. Tar firm, $1 80. Crude turpentine firm, $2 75, $4 25 and $4 25.

SAVANNAH, GA., Sept. 6.—Turpentine firm, 62½c. Rosin firm. Quote: A, B, C, $3 85; D, $3 85; E, $4 05; F, $4 15; G, $4 25; H, $4 30; I, $4 35; K, $4 40; M, $4 45; W G, $4 95; W, $5 40.

ALL LINES IN LOCAL MARKETS REMAIN FIRM

Flour Is the Weakest Factor and Shading Is Indulged to Tempt Customers.

An excellent day's trade was the only feature of the local markets yesterday. Butter was much easier than it has been for a week, but dealers are confident there will be no drop in price when the Elgin board meets next Monday. Everything is now favorable to butter advances rather than reductions. Pasture is rapidly disappearing, and the milk supply is naturally growing shorter. By the end of this month fronts will cut off the foraging of cattle and feeding will begin, and this would naturally mean a higher market. In the face of this the butter men do not think there will be any reductions at this time. Cheese is keeping in close sympathy with butter and eggs are as strong as ever.

The flour market showed no change yesterday, but is weak at present quotations, and shading is being indulged. Sugar is the same as before, the heavy demand being the important factor in keeping up the prices. Green foods and produce show no particular changes, but an excellent trade was maintained in them all day yesterday.

HAY AND GRAIN.

Receipts.

Receipts yesterday were: Pennsylvania, 2 cars hay, 10 cars corn, 14 cars oats, 1 car rye, 1 car feed. Baltimore and Ohio, 2 cars hay, 1 car straw, 2 cars oats. Lake Erie, 4 cars hay.

There were no changes in the market yesterday, either in prices or the general situation. The lower grades of hay are still arriving in abundance and it is evident the farmers are rushing in all the poorer stock to get rid of it and save storing it in their barns. This condition is expected to prevail for several weeks yet, after which the low grades will begin to disappear from the market. The same condition prevails in oats. Low grades are so plentiful there is a surplus and only the best can find a ready market.

Good Producers Continue to Come in from the Yellow Creek District

The Yellow Creek district, in Calhoun county, is still furnishing new producers with a good deal of regularity. While the average size is smaller than some time ago there are still some very fair producers found in the northeast end of the development. In that part of the field Mabery Bros. & Stewart have drilled their No. 2 on the Martha A. Cherry farm, through the Horse grit, and have a 60-barrel producer. In the same district the Lowther-Kauffman Oil Company is due to the mast of a second test on the N. Webb farm. The Akron Oil Company has started to drill at a test on the Robert Knight farm. The Eastern Oil Company is putting the rig for a test on the Calvin Wilson farm.

In the Salem district, Harrison county, the South Penn Oil Company has completed and shot its No. 3 on the Charles Lashen farm, and the well produced 75 barrels the first 24 hours. At Beall's Mills, Lewis county, the South Penn company's No. 2 on the H. C. Lang farm declined rapidly, and produced but 12 barrels the second 24 hours after it was shot. In the Wallace district, the South Penn company has drilled its second test on the D. S. Barker farm into the Gordon pay, and the well is showing for a good producer. It produced 20 barrels the first eight hours after the pay was tapped.

In the Barkhurst district, Walnut county, the South Penn company has drilled No. 4 on the McIntyre-Petersen farm 10 feet into the Gordon, and the well produced 25 barrels the first 24 hours. In the same district, the same company is drilling its test on the J. A. Harsir farm from the Big Injun to the Gordon. The Big Injun was dry.

The new development on Wells creek, north of Steubenville, Jefferson county, is now the most important prospect on the Ohio side. In no districts there is more activity, but the work is confined to the interior and attracts little attention. On the east side of the Wells Creek development, Cashaw Bros. have drilled in their second test on the R. H. Dixon farm, and have a show for a 70-barrel producer in the Berea grit. This well is located the farthest to the east of any in the pool, and makes the outlook for an extension in that direction look promising.

Near Harrisonville, Noble county, the Noble Oil Company has completed No. 5 on the L. R. Frazier farm, and has a duster to the tune of 800 mcf. In the same district, the same company has completed No. 3 on the L. W. Wheeler farm, and has a duster in the Ishmaelite sand. The Taylor Oil Company has drilled in No. 2 on the Fisher Wheeler farm through the same formation, and has a duster. N. S. Burton has completed his test on the S. A. Shafer farm, and has a show for a five-barrel pumper in the Stull Run sand. One mile south of Belle Valley, Chris. McKee has made a discovery that presents a new feature for that locality. He has drilled his test on the Silas Wiley farm into the Berea grit, and has a show for a good producer. It will be fitted a shot and then tested.

Near Benwood, Monroe county, the Berea grit pool is cutting out a creditable showing of new work. The producing formation in this district has been found to be quite regular and the wells very fair producers. In this district the Custer Oil Company is the most active operator, and the wells completed average close to 25 barrels a day. Some of the best producers start as high as 40 barrels a day. There are about 15 wells drilling and starting in the Geological Survey's Bear Run, Bethlehem township, Fayette and Grafton Gas Company has completed a test on the H. A. Harper farm and has a fair gasser in the Gordon. They are now drilling in the fifth sand. The test is located 60 feet south of the Philadelphia Company's very large gasser, recorded a short time ago. For the D. L. Ash farm, Near Penn, P. O. Herrington, report the Philadelphia Company has drilled its test on the R. W. Harbert farm through all sands, and has a duster. In Smoke Camp run, Pocahontas Gas Coal, Lewis county, the Philadelphia Company has drilled a test on the A. J. Bennett farm through all sands and has a duster.

On Sugar creek, Monte Garvin, Tyler township, the Carter Oil Company is drilling a test on the C. W. Case farm. The same company has the rig completed for a second test on the Kit Fogle farm. On the same stream the Mountain State Gas Company has the rig completed for a test on the Mrs. Moore farm. The Monroe Oil and Gas Company has started to drill at a second test on the Anthony Booth farm. Underwood & McCann have the rig completed for a test on the Allie Allen farm, and Ellsworth, Davis & Tyler are starting a test on the A. J. Ashton farm.

SUMMER TRAVEL BREAKS RECORD

Excursions End With That to Seashore—B. & O. Is Testing Car Ventilator.

NEW FERRY FOR LAKE SERVICE

Summer excursion traffic from the Pittsburgh district practically ends with the last seashore excursion of the Pennsylvania railroad to Atlantic City from Pittsburgh today. There will be a few late excursion parties to some of the nearer resorts, whose outings were arranged necessarily late in the season. The week-end business to Chautauqua, Conneaut Lake and other points to which week-end tickets were sold, ended with the last excursions of Saturday and Monday, and it was announced yesterday that the week-end tickets are no longer on sale.

Today's seashore excursion will be comparatively large for so late in the season. The company will run two additional sections to the regular three sections of train No. 12 this morning, and an extra section to the three regular sections of No. 16 will be run tonight. One of the new features, tried first on the Pennsylvania's Atlantic City excursion two weeks ago, will be that of a dining car being placed in each of the Pullman car excursion trains. This experiment was found to be popular with the travelers and at the same time bettered the operations of the trains by not having to lay over at Altoona for luncheon.

"There has been a noticeable phase of uniformity of the summer excursion business this summer, especially that to Atlantic City. In former years there have been spurts in this business; for instance, on one of the excursions last season, seven extra night trains had to be provided for one Thursday and six day trains. This season the excursions have all been heavier than the average of any former year," said a Pennsylvania passenger operating man yesterday. "The excursion of the lines from the west this year was much heavier than last season, there being 64 cars in this excursion alone from all points on the system west of Pittsburgh.

"The general excursion business has also been more heavy and more regular than in former seasons, while the regular suburban local and through travel has gone far ahead of former years. From what I have been able to learn of other roads, it is evident 1905 will be a banner year for general travel over the whole country."

B. & O. Officers in Conference.

General Manager Thomas Fitzgerald, Chief Engineer D. D. Carothers and several other officers of the operating and engineering departments of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad were in conference here almost all day yesterday. It was stated that the conference was simply to inquire closely into the operating matters and clearing up all necessary fall work in the engineering department. The officers went west last night, Mr. Fitzgerald and party going to Sandusky to inspect improvements there, and Mr. Carothers going to Cincinnati to look after business in his department on the Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern.

Among those at the conference, in addition to General Manager Fitzgerald and Chief Engineer Carothers, were Engineer of Construction A. M. Kinsman and W. T. Lechlider, assistant to the general superintendent of transportation, of Baltimore; General Superintendent W. C. Loree of the Wheeling system of Wheeling, and General Superintendent Robert Pitney of the Pittsburgh system, in whose office the conference was held.

During the day a meeting of the directors of the Pittsburgh, Wheeling & Baltimore Railroad Company, a subsidiary line of the Baltimore & Ohio, was held, matters of interest in the Wheeling improvements being considered. C. W. Woolford, secretary of the Baltimore & Ohio and subsidiary companies, was present from Baltimore.

Testing New Ventilating Device.

D. B. Martin, manager of passenger traffic of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, who was here yesterday in conference with Assistant General Passenger Agent Joseph P. Taggart, Superintendent R. W. Dyer and other officers, said that tests are being made on the dining cars of the Royal Blue limited in the east of a new ventilating and air-cooling device with a view to installing the apparatus in the dining cars, Pullman cars and later in all of the coaches of the road. Mr. Martin was in the party of General Manager Fitzgerald and went west last night.

"The ventilating device, which also cools the air," said Mr. Martin, "has proved a good thing so far as it has been tested. We have found that with its use in the dining cars the atmosphere can be kept comfortable, so that there is no need of opening the windows or deck ventilators to cool the air. This keeps the interior of the car free from smoke, cinders and dirt, and thus proves a good thing in the dining service. The air is passed through pipes surrounded by ice, and thus is cooled at the same time it is admitted through a ventilator that purifies it. The apparatus is put up in such neat form in a box as to be ornamental rather than otherwise to the interior of the car. It is operated in connection with the electric mechanism which operates the electric fans in each of the dining cars. Eventually, if the further tests prove as satisfactory as those already known, the device will be installed in all of the system's dining cars and in the sleeping and parlor cars, and later we hope to have it in the coaches. Its use, of course, will be principally confined to the hot months, when, if it were necessary, the air could be cooled 10 degrees below freezing."

Mr. Martin said that no new passenger equipment will be received this year, as the company made ample provisions for this part of the rolling stock last year. Data for next year's order are now being prepared.

Will Christen New Car Ferry.

Invitations have been issued by officers of the Marquette & Bessemer Dock and Navigation Company to attend the christening of the company's new steel car ferry, "Marquette and Bessemer No. 2," at the ship yards of the American Ship Building Company, foot of Taylor street, Cleveland, O., on next Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. This steel car ferry has been built to replace the ferry destroyed by fire last spring. It is built on the most modern plan and is designed for the heavy service of the company between Conneaut harbor and Port Stanley, across Lake Erie. This is a joint company of the Bessemer & Lake Erie and Pere Marquette railroad companies for a connection between their lines across the lake. The ferry is used for ore traffic southward and coal and finished steel product tonnage northward.

"Mob" Awaits Bridegroom's Return.

Frank H. Branthoover, chief clerk to Division Freight Agent J. D. Lippincott of the Pittsburgh division of the Panhandle, thought that Miss Edna Altman of Idlewile street, East End, Pittsburgh, would be happier as a homekeeper than as a schoolkeeper again this season, and, consequently, finding her of the same opinion, he took her as his wife on last Saturday evening, the wedding being at her home. But it seems that there are others of a different opinion, and it was said yesterday that a "mob" waits the bridegroom's appearance here to claim that Mrs. Branthoover is wanted in the Wilkinsburg schools again this year. She has been one of the most popular teachers known in Wilkinsburg and when her marriage came as a complete surprise just three days before she was expected to appear in the school room, her expectant pupils and fellow teachers were astounded. Mr. Branthoover's friends at the Union station, who were also taken by surprise, say that it will be no use to "mob" him; that a good, old-fashioned belling would be the better plan to bring peace. The happy couple are spending their honeymoon at Walloon Lake, Mich., and will live in Rosslyn on their return.

Rose Succeeds Borland on Santa Fe.

Charles A. Rose, traffic manager for E. V. Hanegok & Co., wholesale lumber dealers of Pittsburgh, has resigned to accept the position of contracting agent of the Santa Fe system here under General Agent E. P. Lalk. He succeeds W. B. Borland, who resigned to become chief clerk in the offices of the Colorado Belt and Iowa Central systems here under Commercial Agent J. C. Toynbee and Commercial Freight Agent Harry M. Corbett, respectively.

Railroad Notes.

G. G. Yeomans, assistant to the president of the Wabash lines east of Toledo, and his chief clerk, R. J. Woods, spent yesterday here, having come east with President Delano Tuesday.

Elmer E. Caldes, proprietor of the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie dining room and restaurant, accompanied by his wife, left last evening for a vacation jaunt of 10 days to New York and Boston.

D. T. McCabe, freight traffic manager of the Pennsylvania lines west, who has been spending a few weeks on vacation with his family at Juniper island, Stony lake, Ontario, will resume his duties this morning.

"Andy" Welsh, Pennsylvania system detective at the Union station, is taking a two months' vacation jaunt, just a little run to the northwest and thence to Alaska. If he slips into a gold mine he says he will not be back in Pittsburgh for some time.

The contract awarded to W. F. Trimble & Sons of Pittsburgh in connection with the Pennsylvania's new Duquesne freight terminal work, is for the outbound freight house. It will be two stories high in part and will be of steel frame construction, with galvanized iron sides and slate roofing. It will be 720 feet long and 30 feet wide.

BESSEMER MAKES RECORD IN AUGUST ORE TRAFFIC

Carnegie Line Exceeds Any Previous Month by Over 50,000 Tons, Handling 707,637 Tons. Total of 5,000,000 for Year Indicated.

Ending a series of record-breaking months, the Bessemer & Lake Erie railroad, the Carnegie Steel Company line, established by its August ore haul a new high record, by a margin of upward of 50,000 tons.

In August the Bessemer hauled 707,637 tons of ore from Conneaut Harbor to the delivery points. This record compares with the new one established in July, when the same road hauled 651,307 tons. The previous record for any month was held by August, 1904, when 646,920 tons were brought down from the lakes.

The August record brings the tonnage from January 1 to September 1 up to the enormous figure of 3,271,968. This is a new record for any year's tonnage for the first seven months, and it is beyond doubt that the ore traffic of the Bessemer for 1905 will stand far above that of any other year.

The indications are that 5,000,000 tons of ore will have been hauled by the Bessemer before the year ends, September, October and November will be busy months and, in case the lakes continue open, there will be some December traffic. The best previous year's record was that of last year, when 4,087,000 tons were hauled. The new record seems likely to eclipse last year's by 25 per cent.

The Bessemer now has all of its new engines and practically all of its new freight cars. The use of this additional equipment has done much to make possible the establishment of the high mark of August. The road finished last week also a continuous stretch of 31 miles of second track, which enables faster time to be made, and adds much to the traffic capacity of the road.

Not only in its ore, but in other lines, the Bessemer will make 1905 its banner year. The total of net tons of revenue freight in 1904 was 7,207,429. In 1905 it gives promise of exceeding 8,250,000. The passenger earnings are showing a similar increase. To date the increase amounts to $20,000 in passenger earnings, which will probably reach $260,000 in 1905, an increase of 12 per cent. The total freight and passenger earnings increase to date over last year is $934,000.

WATER METERS CHEAPER FOR THE SOUTH SIDE

Rents There Are Cut in Half. Consumers Fighting Monongahela Water Company.

Director Bigelow's claim that meters will reduce the cost of water to household consumers is strengthened by the experience of residents of the Thirty-fifth ward who have formed an organization and refuse to pay water rents except upon the basis of meter measurement.

When the city adopted a water rate schedule giving the consumer the option of paying by meter a number of residents of Duquesne Heights installed maters and found that their water bills were just one-half what they were formerly. The Monongahela Water Company, which supplies the South Side, refused to accept payment of water rents as computed by meter and it is stated that many of the residents of the Thirty-fifth ward have not paid water rents for two years.

Notices that suit would be entered against them, that the bills were already in the hands of an alderman and they would have to pay costs, also that the water would be turned off have been sent to consumers, but none of these threats have had any effect.

Controller Larkin contends that water meters will increase the cost of water to consumers, that it will result in uncleanliness and disease by reason of the consumers trying to keep down their bills. The controller's theory is not borne out by the experience of the Duquesne Height people.

CHINA OUT OF TRANCE.

The Rev. Hunter Corbett, for 40 years a missionary of the Presbyterian church in China, with headquarters in Cheefoo, is visiting at the home of Col. Levi Burd Duff, where his two daughters have been living for some years.

"I look for a rapid awakening in China," said Mr. Hunter. "The Russia-Japanese war has resulted in a quickening of Chinese faculties. The country is a wonderful one. It needs only the impulse of civilizing influence to make it productive. China has emerged from its trance of centuries. The nation is now taking to books. I expect it to duplicate the wonderful record made by Japan."

The Rev. Mr. Hunter, speaking of the boycott, declared it to be the result of the policy of exclusion maintained by the United States. China desires to send to this country young men as students, and the exclusion laws have operated to render the natives hostile to American goods.

The missionary talked interestingly concerning his long service in China. The work of the church has progressed favorably, he declared. Mr. Hunter is in the city for a few days only. From Pittsburgh he goes to Oberlin, O., for a short time, thence visiting other points. He expects to devote the remainder of his life to mission work in China.

Shoot for Gold Medal.

The annual rifle match to decide the possession of the Sleppy gold medal will be held by members of Co. I, Eighteenth regiment, N. G. P., on September 19. The shoot will be held at the regimental range at Highland station, Baltimore & Ohio railroad, and will be at 200 and 500 yards, 10 shots at each range. To become the permanent owner of the trophy a member must win the medal for three successive years. Last year's match was won by Sergeant Thomas. It is expected that a score of members will compete for the medal.

Fortune Teller Is Fined.

Mrs. Annie McDonald of Madison avenue, Allegheny, was fined $10 and costs as a suspicious person by Magistrate Negley yesterday. She was arrested at the residence of George Smith, of Wightman street. Complaint had been made that a woman answering her description had been visiting the Squirrel Hill district and telling the fortunes of colored servants. She is said to have charged as high as $10 for lifting the veil.

Says There Is No Blockade.

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—The Panama canal commission received a dispatch today from Chief Engineer Stevens denying the rumor that a general congestion of freight exists on the isthmus of Panama as a result of sanitary regulations. The dispatch says that for 10 days berthing has not been delayed, and announces that unless blocked by quarantine the ports of Colon and Christobal will be able to handle all business promptly in the future.

Hides Finery Under Coat.

Detective Lous H. Leff yesterday arrested a woman under suspicion of shoplifting, who says she is Ethel Williams, aged 27, and single, of Rochester, N. Y. She was taken to Central station and on being searched some silk shirt waists, belts and a lot of valuable lace collars were found under a silk coat she was wearing. She was locked up for a hearing today.

FORT WORTH, TEX., Sept. 6.—The Bank of Commerce, a private institution doing a small business, voluntarily closed its doors today, pending the action of creditors. It is stated that the present suspension is largely due to the recent closing of a Denver (Col.) bank.

LAWRENCEVILLE MAN IS OFFERED FORTUNE

Gets Letter from Spain Relative to Mysterious Trunk, but He Hesitates to Take Chance.

From Spain, that land of dons, Moses Hirsch, a merchant of 3423 Butler street, received yesterday a letter which offered him the snug sum of $12,333 out of a fortune now hidden in an old trunk, sleeping in an English railroad station. As far as Hirsch is concerned the fortune will stay in that old trunk until the crack of doom. The game is an old one and has been worked by Spanish swindlers before. While Hirsch says he would be willing to accept the sum offered by the unknown writer he has no money to waste in taking a chance for it, and that he has been too long in America to be caught by such a crude swindle. The letter was postmarked at Madrid and read as follows:

I need the co-operation of an honest man in recovering $25,000 from a trunk deposited in a railway station of England, and also a check for $12,000, payable to bearer, being this check together with the railroad receipt for the recovering of said trunk hidden in a secret drawer of a hand valise forming part of a baggage seized to me in Madrid. I am in prison and shall not be necessary at all that you come to Spain to leave free said seizure paying the railroad the necessary charges. In recompense you shall be rewarded with the third part of the total amount. Should you be disposed to aid me, please cable the single word "Boscaer" and I will send you full particulars. The matter is a pressing one. Then I shall sign with my name, but in the meantime, fearing this letter not reach you, I only sign there W. Address for cablegram Sato Gorgacra 8 Madrid, Spain.

The letter was written on foreign paper and was dated August 21. The envelope is made of light colored brown paper. In the upper left hand corner are the Spanish words "Estados Unidos." The letter was written in English, badly composed and punctuated. Hirsch said yesterday that if any of his friends want to take a long chance in getting the money he would turn the letter over to them.

Negro Is Charged With Theft.

Emmett Carver, a negro, of Finance street, was held for further hearing by Magistrate Negley yesterday. He was arrested in Homewood on a larceny charge preferred by Dr. J. H. Thompson of South Negley avenue. It is alleged that Carver stole three horse blankets and the same number of laprobes.

RAILROADS NOT IN ICING TRADE

CLAIM TO HAVE CLEAN HANDS

(By Associated Press to The Gazette.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—The Armour Car Lines Company has been granted by the interstate commerce commission an extension until September 16 in which to file its answer to the inquiry concerning relations between refrigerator lines and railroads. Several railroads have been granted extensions ranging up to September 25. The time in which to answer, as set originally, expired yesterday and the replies which came in were made public today.

The Southern Railway, the Atlantic Coast Line, the Central of Georgia, the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe and the Pennsylvania have filed their answers. All, except the two last mentioned, declare that they are in no way responsible for the charges made by the Armour car lines, and although they do not publish refrigerator charges, they state expressly that their tariff rates do not include refrigeration. The Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe makes the same disclaimer concerning its business relations with the Santa Fe refrigerator dispatch.

The Pennsylvania railroad avers that its line of road does not extend into Georgia, South Carolina or North Carolina, or any of the states mentioned in the inquiry, and takes the position that the complaint does not affect it because the traffic mentioned does not originate on any of its lines of railroads. The respondent says, therefore, it is in nowise responsible for any arrangement with the Armour car lines, nor for the charges made for refrigeration. That there is any arrangement or understanding between the Armour car lines and the respondent is expressly denied, either as to supplying cars, or icing. On the contrary, the respondent avers it has not undertaken to furnish any refrigerator cars for fruit traffic nor to provide refrigeration. The road declares that it is not consulted respecting the character of the charges made by the Armour car lines, has no authoritative information as to the amount, does not directly or indirectly have anything to do with fixing said charges and is not entitled to and does not receive any part thereof.

Joint tariffs, in which it is engaged with other roads, are said by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, to be restricted to railroad transportation, and are without reference to refrigeration charges. Charges for refrigeration are noted on the waybills as advance charges and are independent from the freight rates. The road further denies any knowledge of rebates or other devices by which one shipper receives lower rates than others.

TO HONOR LINCOLN.

Louisville Wants Birthplace of Great American Turned Over to Spanish War Veterans' Association.

LOUISVILLE, KY., Sept. 6.—A movement looking to the securing of Abraham Lincoln's birthplace by the Spanish War Veterans, is expected to be launched at the national encampment of the veterans, which opens tomorrow in Milwaukee.

The historic spot in Larue county was recently purchased by R. J. Collier of New York, and acting upon a report that Mr. Collier would present the place to one of the patriotic orders of America, the Louisville camp of Spanish War Veterans has adopted a resolution instructing its delegates to present the proposition at Milwaukee. The matter has been called to the attention of President Roosevelt and Mr. Collier.

Your Heart

Is a wonderful pump that works incessantly. The power that keeps this wonderful pump in motion is nerve-force, the energy furnished by the nerves.

Disease, over-exertion, fright, anxiety, alcohol, tobacco, and other stimulants weaken these nerves.

Then comes shortness of breath, heart palpitation, dizziness, etc., because the nerves are too weak to furnish power. Take the only safe remedy,

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure

It feeds, strengthens and builds up the nerves and muscles of the heart so they can supply the necessary energy.

"I suffered terribly with heart trouble, shortness of breath, smothering spells. After taking Dr. Miles' Heart Cure a short time I feel like a different person. That depressed, smothering feeling left me, and I have not since had the slightest symptom of the old trouble."

ALL day long, each and every day, men are pouring into our hat department glad to discard their frayed and discolored straws for new derby, fedora or soft hat. The new blocks we show are hailed with heartiest approbation; and as the present season has brought us back from the extreme to the normal styles, many men have expressed themselves as being glad that "freakish" hats have given way to something more sensible.

There's strong indication that the soft hat will be more the vogue and most popular for the next ten weeks at least. They sort o' bridge the jump from lightest summer to heavy winter headgear.

Our great 90c hat. We expect every derby and soft hat that we sell at 90c to bring us a new customer; they cannot do it unless they wear well, unless they retain their shape, unless they are fast dye, unless they will give perfect satisfaction. By actual comparison we know these hats to be the equal of the best $1.50 hats made. Our price is only..... 90c

The celebrated Roelof and John B. Stetson 1905-06 derbies, in all the new blocks and shades—prices $3.50 and..... $4.00

The Joshua Turner derbies, an exclusively English made hat for our trade, absolutely correct in style; unmatchable in value..... $2.98

Our "Ben Hur" derbies—there isn't a better hat made under $3.00, and all we ask is..... $1.98

Men's soft hats, in fedora and alpine shapes, all shades, $4.00 down to..... $1.98

Young men's soft hats, "Herald" and "Mundy" styles, $2.98 down to.. $1.00

Choice of any traveling bag in stock at 25% off

Look at the new shirts and neckwear

TAKE the distinctively new styles—for the stiff bosom white shirt is too staple to judge by. There are quite 50 styles of soft bosom colored shirts, and more than 100 styles and patterns of plain stiff and pleated shirts. In the fineness of the materials; in the carefulness of the making—little details in the sewing that a woman would appreciate more than a man; in the gentility and beauty of the patterns—in all respects your money will be wisely invested if you buy here. Price $1.00 and $1.50.

Our neckwear buyer seems to have outdone all previous efforts in his display of neckwear for fall. Our distinctive leadership is apparent. We are splendidly ready, with stocks several thousand dollars greater than ever. We will just mention the new four-in-hands in 2½, 2¾ and 3-inch widths at..... 50c

Come see—we'll be glad to show you styles in shirts and neckwear as long as you care to stay and look. We'll show until you cry "stop!"
